

Metaphors

A metaphor is a figure of speech that describes one thing by stating it is something else in order to highlight similarities between the two.

Type	Explanation	Example
Implied Metaphor	Suggests a comparison without directly stating it, leaving it to be inferred	He sailed through the exam.
Sustained (Extended) Metaphor	Continues throughout a portion of a text, often spanning multiple sentences or lines	Her mind was a library, filled with stories, facts, and mysteries waiting to be discovered.
Dead Metaphor	Has been used so often that it has lost its figurative meaning and is now treated as a common expression	Time is running out.
Mixed Metaphor	Combines two or more incompatible metaphors, often creating a confusing or humorous effect	We'll burn that bridge when we get to it.

Julia Elisabeth Lonergan

Understanding Metaphor Lit:

Understanding Metaphor in Literature Gerard Steen, 1994 It is the aim of this study to present aspects of an empirical theory of metaphor in literary reception and to show how evidence can be collected from readers processing of metaphor in literary texts in order to evaluate how that processing relates to the function of metaphor in literature

Empirical Studies of Literature, 1991-01-01 Linguistic Perspectives on Literature (RLE Linguistics C: Applied Linguistics) Marvin K.L. Ching, Michael C. Haley, Ronald F. Lunsford, 2014-01-10 Although linguistics is often a technical and increasingly abstruse discipline many linguists retain a concern for the way in which linguistics can shed light on literature and literary problems In their introductory chapter the editors of this collection of essays by linguists on either side of the Atlantic enunciate a bold stance that defines the theoretical relationship between linguistics and literature delimits what should be considered a linguistic analysis of literature and explains how such an analysis is related to current theories of readership and literary criticism The editors theory of the relationship between linguistic and literary studies stipulates an eclectic rather than a holistic approach and the essays they have gathered together reflect this belief The contributions include such varied approaches as transformational grammar text grammar and speech act theory and the topics analysed include many that are at the heart of literature such as topicalization imagery figurative language ambiguity and the play on words through puns The anthology as a whole illustrates how linguistic theory illuminates the very nature of literary language It also gives evidence of the new insights into literature that have arisen from a close analysis of the language in which the literature is encoded
