

MINORITY GROUPS

A minority group is a distinct group of people in society who lack the collective numbers to sufficiently be protected from discrimination from society's dominant groups.

OVERVIEW

Minority groups refer to social categories consisting of individuals who possess distinct characteristics or attributes that differentiate them from the dominant or majority group within a particular society. These characteristics can include race, ethnicity, religion, language, gender, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status.

EXAMPLES

- Linguistic Minorities: An example is the Francophone community in Canada.
- Gender Diverse People: Trans people often face discrimination based on their lack of conformity to binary gender identities.
- Religious minorities: Historically, people who don't conform to dominant religions have faced discrimination.
