Smith, 2013-11-13 That YHWH is numerically one is foundational to the theology of the Hebrew Bible Christian theologians historically have affirmed that there is a more fundamental type of oneness attributable to God God is one not merely in the sense of being the only God but also in the sense of being simple or non composite having no parts of any kind In this way God is said to be an absolute unity After a consideration of all the evidence Barry D Smith reaches the conclusion that there is no basis for ascribing simplicity to God The simplicity doctrine is not found in Scripture and the traditional arguments used to establish it are unconvincing In addition the recent defenses of the simplicity doctrine prompted by Alvin Plantinga s work Does God Have a Nature are unsuccessful It should not be thought however that the rejection of divine simplicity means that by default God must be conceived as composite not even as a perfect composite with maximally great God making properties Rather there is a third option God should not be conceived as either simple or composite The question of in which mode God has attributes or exemplifies properties should be set aside The Whispered Heart -Volume II Deborah Horton,2012-05-28
