

How to Read a Poem

First hold it in your hand a while; just sit and feel its weight. Note how the sun glints off each burnished face. Now feel along the sides until you find the lock: so small it seems no key could fit inside. It's only love, as straight and slender as a pin, that will unlock its heart. Lift up the lid. Beneath its mirrored surface living clockwork ticks and carries every word from thought to heart and back again. Keep watch until you know its inner secrets better than your own.

Or: stick a nail right through the lock, force thumbs through crumpling walls and pull the halves apart like rotting fruit. You can reduce it all to sad component parts: a pile of screws and rusting springs and cogs with broken teeth. There's always one that's somehow missing when you try and fail to make it whole again.
