Today I Made My First Communion:

Today I Made My First Communion Dianne Ahern, 2010 The Founder of Opus Dei Andrés Vázquez de Prada, 2001 This is the first volume of three about the life of Saint Josemaría Escrivá. He has been hailed as a pioneer in helping ordinary Christians find God in their daily lives. Moved as a teenager by the footprints of a barefoot Carmelite priest in the snow, Josemaría felt called to greater generosity in the priesthood and in his struggles to build up Opus Dei during the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War. This latest biography is the most extensively researched work on his family history, childhood, adolescence, and young adulthood. The reader benefits from an enormous wealth of details in extensive notes and appendices. Accompanying them are excerpts from his correspondence, spiritual writings, and testimonials from dozens of friends and acquaintances. The remarkable story continues in volumes II and III.

The Bloomsbury Reader in Religion and Childhood Anna Strhan, Stephen G. Parker, Susan Ridgely, 2017-01-26 From recent sex abuse scandals in the Roman Catholic Church to arguments about faith schools and religious indoctrination, this volume considers the interconnection between the actual lives of children and the position of children as placeholders for the future. Childhood has often been a particular site of struggle for negotiating the location of religion in public and everyday social life, and children's involvement and non-involvement in religion raises strong feelings because they represent the future of religious and secular communities, even of society itself. The Bloomsbury Reader in Religion and Childhood provides a rich resource for students and scholars of this interdisciplinary field and addresses wider questions about the distinctiveness of childhood and its religious dimensions in historical and contemporary perspective. Divided into five thematic parts, the volume provides classic, contemporary, and specially commissioned readings from a range of perspectives, including the sociological, anthropological, historical, and theological. Case studies range from Augustine's description of childhood in Confessions, the psychology of religion and childhood, to religion in children's literature, religious education, and Qur'anic schools. Religious traditions covered include Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism in the UK and Europe, USA, Latin America, and Africa. An introduction situates each thematic part, and each reading is contextualised by the editors. Guidance on further reading and study questions are provided on the book's
