Write To Learn 8eim:

Lectures on Differential Geometry Shlomo Sternberg, 1999 This book is based on lectures given at Harvard University during the academic year 1960 1961 The presentation assumes knowledge of the elements of modern algebra groups vector spaces etc and point set topology and some elementary analysis Rather than giving all the basic information or touching upon every topic in the field this work treats various selected topics in differential geometry The author concisely addresses standard material and spreads exercises throughout the text His reprint has two additions to the original volume a paper written jointly with V Guillemin at the beginning of a period of intense interest in the equivalence problem and a short description from the author on results in the field that occurred between the first and the second printings American Lumberman ,1918

Learning to Write/writing to Learn John Sawyer Mayher, Nancy Lester, Nancy B. Lester, Gordon M. Pradl, 1983 Learning to Write Writing to Learn provides a basic guide to writing as a way of learning drawing the reader into an expanded notion of what writing is and how it is created As you read the chapters the ideas seem at first only a synthesis of masters like Elbow Emig Murray Graves Britton and Moffett But upon closer look there is more to the book than a litany of already published ideas Mayher Lester and Pradl use their own means of organization to extend the dialogue to present concerns The book is like a long description of what a good writing class writing group or writing institute can be
