Writing Experience 2001:

The Writing Experience 2001 Hyacinthe K. Baron, 2001-05 This anthology is the result of the vision of The Palm Springs Writers Guild 2001 and President Hyacinthe Baron to publish members works in a collection based on a democratic non judgmental reflection of the diverse talents imagination and words of those writers as an important step in encouraging both beginning and professional published authors to see their works in print The written word is a powerful tool enabling writers to leave a message for the future Our ancestors made their mark on the walls of caves as a statement We were here we exist we think If they had the written word we would know just what they thought While the sounds of many voices echo through the granite escarpments of the Santa Rosa Mountains as Tahquitz Peak and San Jacinto look down benignly on the small figures below who draw inspiration peace and comfort from this beautiful valley long the playground of celebrities from Hollywood s halcyon days the Coachella Valley and its unique individuals continue to nurture all who come to bathe in the brilliant sun and magnificent visions This is inspiration The short stories novel excerpts essays and memoirs and poetry ring of THE WRITING EXPERIENCE 2001

Mapping Experience in Polish and Russian Women's Writing Urszula Chowaniec, 2010-09-13 The volume encompasses eleven articles which discuss the critical views that Polish and Russian women writers have articulated with regard to the notion of experience and constructions of femininity in the national imagination from the 19th to the 21st centuries Major themes of the articles include women s experiences as writers in the 19th century women s embodied experiences of a traumatic past body and sexuality in the different ages of women political and aesthetic discourses and femininity Although the articles are arranged in chronological order they do not form an absolute chronological or periodic continuum i e from Romanticism to Postmodernism although references to certain aesthetic periods are made The authors of the articles reflect in detail on how the women writers and their literary texts represent different understandings and experiences in relation to dominant perceptions for example of the memory of war of motherhood of art and aesthetics and so on Readers are encouraged to seek parallels and continuities between the different historical times and spaces between women s writing in Russia and Poland between different scholarly approaches and aims The articles of this volume bring together important critical standpoints in women s writing in Poland and Russia in which parallels continuities and resemblances can be traced but in which discontinuities breaks and differences also make themselves visible Apart from the conspicuous resemblances between individual Russian and Polish women writers works or even between groups of women writers the articles document the diversity within Russian and Polish women s writing respectively and even within individual writers

Writing the Nomadic Experience in Contemporary Francophone Literature Katharine N. Harrington, 2013 In this book Author Katharine N Harrington examines contemporary writers from the French speaking world who can be classified as literary nomads The concept of nomadism based on the experience of traditionally mobile peoples lacking any fixed home reflects a postmodern way of thinking that encourages individuals to reconsider rigid definitions of borders classifications and identities Nomadic identities reflect shifting landscapes that defy taking on fully the limits of any one fixed national or cultural identity In conceiving of identities beyond the boundaries of national or cultural origin this book opens up the space for nomadic subjects whose identity is based just as much on their geographical displacement and deterritorialization as on a relationship to any one fixed place community or culture This study explores the experience of an existence between borders and its translation into writing that While nomadism is frequently associated with post colonial authors this study considers an eclectic group of contemporary Francophone writers who are not easily defined by the boundaries of one nation one culture or one language Each of the four writers J M G LeClzio Nancy Huston Nina Bouraoui and R gine Robin maintains a connection to France but it is one that is complicated by life experiences backgrounds and choices that inevitably expand their identities beyond the Hexagon Harrington examines how these authors life experiences are reflected in their writing and how they may inform us on the state of our increasingly global world where borders and identities are blurred
