The Wizard In The Well:

The Wizard in the Well Harry Behn, 1956 A collection of poems for children that deal with spring flowers hide and seek day dreams and other subjects

The Wizard Lord Lawrence Watt-Evans, 2006-03-07 The Wizard Lord's duty is to keep the world in its delicate balance He must govern lightly to protect his domain from power hungry interlopers such as certain wizards who previously fought to rule the world But if the Wizard Lord himself strays from the way of the just then it is up to the Chosen to intercede The Chosen ones are the Leader the Seer the Swordsman the Beauty the Thief the Scholar the Archer and the Speaker Each are magically infused mortal individuals who for the term of their service have only one function to be available to remove an errant Wizard Lord whether by persuasion or by stronger means Breaker a young man of ambition has taken the mantle of Swordsman from its former bearer who wished to retire Never did he realize that he would be called to duty so quickly or that the balance of power in his world would be so precarious He had a duty to perform A world to save So why does he still have doubts not just about himself but about the entire balance of power

The Wizard's Son Oliphant, 1884

The Wizard's Daughter Margaret Collier Graham, 1905 There had been a norther during the day and at sunset the valley seen from Dysart's cabin on the mesa was a soft blur of golden haze The wind had hurled the yellow leaves from the vineyard exposing the gnarled deformity of the vines and the trailing branches of the pepper trees had swept their fallen berries into coral reefs on the southerly side A young man with a delicate discontented face sat on the porch of the Dysart claim cabin looking out over the valley A last gust of lukewarm air strewn the floor with scythe shaped eucalyptus leaves and Mrs Dysart came out with her broom to sweep them away She was a large woman with a crease at her waist that buried her apron strings and the little piazza creaked ominously as she walked about The invalid got up with a man's instinctive distrust of a broom and began to move away Don't disturb yourself Mr Palmerston she said waving him back into his chair with one hand and speaking in a large level voice as if she were quelling a mob don't disturb yourself I won't raise any dust Does the north wind choke you up much
