Commodus O. Hekster, 2021-11-15. The emperor Commodus AD 180-192 has commonly been portrayed as an insane madman whose reign marked the beginning of the end of the Roman Empire. Indeed, the main point of criticism on his father Marcus Aurelius is that he appointed his son as his successor. Especially Commodus' behaviour as a gladiator and the way he represented himself with divine attributes, especially those of Hercules, are often used as evidence for the emperor's presumed madness. However, this political biography will apply modern interpretations of the spectacles in the arena and of the imperial cult to Commodus' reign. It will focus on the dissemination and reception of imperial images and suggest that there was a method in Commodus' madness.
