Sourcebook World Religions A Source:

Sourcebook: World Religions Seán McLoughlin, 2003 Fully cross referenced and alphabetically arranged this general reference book explains the key figures festivals holy writings and fundamental beliefs of all the major religions of the world

Sourcebook of the World's Religions Joel Beversluis, 2011-02-08 Now in its third edition this is the most comprehensive work available on the rich variety of paths available to today's spiritual seekers More than an academic reference it explores how religions can collaborate to help the world Essays exploring the realm of building an interfaith community add to the book's detailed portraits of the major religious traditions The Sourcebook also contains essays on spiritual practices as diverse as theosophy wicca and indigenous religions This revised edition of the Sourcebook offers an unparalleled look at where spirituality is headed in the coming millennium

Movements and Issues in World Religions: A Sourcebook and Analysis of Developments Since 1945 Charles Wei-hsun Fu, Gerhard E. Spiegler, 1987-05-14 The religious world of the past forty years has been characterized by profound changes Western and Eastern religions both traditional and new have rapidly developed into interactive socio political forces that cannot be ignored if we are to understand contemporary social forces Until now there has been no single scholarly work that deals with virtually all of the important postwar religious movements and issues in world religions This unprecedented collection offers critical insights into diverse political religious and ideological traditions and their interaction in different regions of the world today

Talking Dialogue Karsten Lehmann, 2021-02-22 Throughout the last two decades the modern dialogue movement has gained worldwide significance The knowledge about its origins is however still very limited This book presents a wide range of insights from eleven case studies into the early history of several important international interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations that have shaped the modern development of interreligious dialogue from the late nineteenth century up to the present Based on new archival research they describe on the one hand how these actors put their ideals into practice and on the other how they faced many challenges as pioneers in the establishment of new interreligious interfaith organizational structures This book concludes with a comparison of those case studies bringing to light new and broader historical sociological understanding of the beginnings of international and multi religious interreligious interfaith dialogue organizations over more than one century The World's Parliament of Religions 1893 The Religious Menschheitsbund 1921 The World Congress of Faiths 1933 1950 The Committee on the Church and the Jewish People of the World Council of Churches 1961 The Temple of Understanding 1968 The International Association for Religious Freedom 1969 The World Conference on Religion and Peace 1970 The Council for a Parliament of the World's Religions 1989 1991 The Oxford International Interfaith Centre 1993 The United Religions Initiative 2000 The Universal Peace Federation 2005 Based on these analyses the authors identify three distinct groups with sometimes conflicting interests that are shaping the movement individual religious virtuosos countercultural activists and representatives of religious institutions Published in cooperation with the King Abdullah Bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious Intercultural Dialogue Vienna

Children and Childhood in World Religions Don S. Browning, Marcia J. Bunge, 2009-08-14 While children figure prominently in religious traditions few books have directly explored the complex relationships between children and religion This is the first book to examine the theme of children in major religions of the world Each of six chapters edited by world class scholars focuses on one religious tradition and includes an introduction and a selection of primary texts ranging from legal to liturgical and from the ancient to the contemporary Through both the scholarly introductions and the primary sources this comprehensive volume addresses a range of topics from the sanctity of birth to a child's relationship to evil showing that issues regarding children are central to understanding world religions and raising significant questions about our own conceptions of children today
