Sustaining Local Literacies:

Sustaining Local Literacies David Barton,1994 This book explores local literacies and the significance of language issues International case studies provide local examples of how literacy is related to language choice and language planning and the role of international agencies

Local Literacies David Barton,Mary Hamilton,2012-11-12 Local Literacies is a unique study of everyday reading and writing By concentrating on a selection of people in a particular community in Britain the authors analyze how they use literacy in their day to day lives

Literacy for Sustainable Development in the Age of Information Naz Rassool,1999-01-01 This text discusses the complexities that surround literacy in the modern world It examines prevailing definitions and views of literacy and evaluates these against the technological skills and knowledge demands of the information society Within a world increasingly concerned about sustainable development the book highlights the importance of multiliteracies and adequate levels of communicative competence in facilitating effective participation in the democratic process

Encyclopedia of Language and Education David Corson,1997 Made up of eight volumes the Encyclopedia of Language and Education is the first attempt at providing an overview of the subject

Encyclopedia of Language and Education Viv Edwards,P. Corson,2013-11-01 Literacy is the second volume of the Encyclopedia of Language and Education the first attempt to overview an area which has emerged as a coherent and exciting field of study in the last two decades While forming part of a series of eight volumes Literacy also stands on its own drawing on some 25 state of the art reviews of current concerns in the study of literacy prepared by leading writers and researchers The book is organised in four main sections Reading Writing The Social Context of Literacy and Literacy Teaching in Selected Regions The approach is multidisciplinary drawing on insights from fields as diverse as anthropology and computer science sociolinguistics and psychology The international flavour of the volume is reflected not only in the choice of contributors from eleven different countries but also in the emphasis throughout on the impact of globalization on our understanding of literacy

Many Families, Many Literacies Denny Taylor,1997 Many Families Many Literacies provides much needed guidance on developing policies and practices that build on the strengths that families bring to any learning situation their diverse languages literacies and complex problem solving capabilities

African American Literacies Unleashed Arnetta F. Ball,Ted Lardner,2005 This pioneering study of African American students in the composition classroom lays the groundwork for reversing the cycle of underachievement that plagues linguistically diverse students African American Literacies Unleashed Vernacular English and the Composition Classroom approaches the issue of African American Vernacular English AAVE in terms of teacher knowledge and prevailing attitudes and it attempts to change current pedagogical approaches with a highly readable combination of traditional academic discourse and personal narratives Realizing that composition is a particular form of social practice that validates some students and excludes others Arnetta Ball and Ted Lardner acknowledge that many African American students come to writing and composition classrooms with talents that are not appreciated To empower and inform practitioners administrators teacher educators and researchers Ball and Lardner provide knowledge and strategies that will help unleash the potential of African American students and help them imagine new possibilities for their successes as writers African American Literacies Unleashed asserts that necessary changes in theory and practice can be addressed by refocusing attention from teachers knowledge deficits to the processes through which teachers engage information relevant to culturally informed pedagogy Providing strategies for unlearning racism in the classroom and changing the status quo this volume stresses the development and maintenance of a real sense of teaching efficacy teachers beliefs in their abilities to connect with and work effectively with all students and reflective optimism teachers informed expectations that all students have the potential to succeed

Current Index to Journals in Education ,1996 Local Literacies Glenys Waters,1998 Details how to plan and carry out a community literacy project including tackling the additional barriers of language culture and logistics in developing countries a must for the pioneering literacy worker

Journal of Asian Pacific Communication ,1993 Literacy, Language and Community Publishing Jane Mace,1995 In direct opposition to current imperatives to standardisation and standards the writers in this book argue for the effectiveness of deeper and more generous approaches to literacy and language approaches which are at the heart of the community publishing movement in the UK
