Swampwalker's Journal David M. Carroll, 2001-06-14 Winner of the John Burroughs Medal An admission ticket to a secret corner of the world Bill McKibben Naturalist David Carroll has dedicated his life to art and to wetlands He is as passionate about swamps bogs vernal ponds and the creatures who live in them as most of us are about our families and closest friends He knows frogs and snakes muskrats and minks dragonflies water lilies cattails sedges everything that swims flies trudges slithers or sinks its roots in wet places In this intimate and wise book Carroll takes us on a lively unforgettable yearlong journey illustrated with his own elegant drawings through the wetlands and reveals why they are so important to his life and ours and to all life on Earth Sue Hubbell Carroll covers four seasons of wading through marshes swamps bogs and fens His eye for detail serves him well whether he is spying on a tiny garter snake struggling to suck down a much larger wood frog or watching a raccoon savagely digging a turtle out of its shell Entertainment Weekly In my pantheon of nature writers David Carroll walks on water Robert Michael Pyle Little Things in a Big Country Hannah Hinchman, 2004 Whether chasing gophers Sisu or flirting with cowboys at the Buckhorn Bar Hannah artist Hannah Hinchman and her dog Sisu are excellent guides to some of the wildest country left in America Treading carefully near a sandhill crane's nest testing the ice on the river and marveling at the seasonal influx of ducks this pair of curious naturalists takes us into the intimate corners of western Montana inquiring into all natural phenomena which Hannah then captures on the page in detailed sketches notes and watercolors If Annie Dillard were an artist she might have composed a book like this But few writers or artists can bring words and images together like Hannah Hinchman Insightful funny and personal she not only enables us to enter her own particular patch of the natural world she also teaches us to see our own bringing to her work an exceptional unity of hand eye and heart
