Matthew McMahon, 2016-10-13 When you finish reading this practical work by Zachary Crofton on biblical repentance you might say to yourself I've never repented That's the kind of impact he is going to have on you if you read this work even in a cursory manner In order to have a deeper walk with Christ repentance is at the heart and life of the sinner who walks comfortably with God However repenting reordering and realigning your fallen mind to sit in connection with God's will is not as simple as praying a prayer as some would have you believe Crofton says that repentance is a sense of and sorrow for sin as committed against God The sinner must spread himself before the Law of God to survey the entire course of his own life He needs to weigh himself in the balance of God's perfection The Gospel sinner knows he is imperfect and in view of God's Law which shows him his sin he comes away not just lacking in some spiritual and moral goodness but sees the utter viciousness of his nature against God's prescription for holiness He then sentences himself as accursed of God agreeing that the Law is right and good and he knows that he is bound to experience God's Divine fury for his sin in hell by God's justice which is just and good He not only sees that he is a true sinner before God but sorrows under his understanding of sin and is ashamed of such a sad and sinful state He comes to learn that repentance is a supernatural gift given to him from God and that he must turn from sin and confess his sin This kind of repentance is necessary to remove the wrath and judgment of God and to answer the call of the gospel which requires everyone to repent Crofton explains the characteristics of true biblical repentance from 2 Corinthians 7 11 There are eight characteristics that he covers godly sorrow care clearing of ourselves indignation fear vehement desire zeal and revenge against sin And finally Crofton demonstrates 10 points which show how you reader might gain godly repentance completely soaking the sinful heart in the blood of Jesus with great speed and earnestly looking for repentance only at the hands of God This is not a scan or facsimile has been updated in modern English for easy reading and has an active table of contents for electronic versions An Illustrated Commentary on the Gospel According to Matthew Lyman Abbott, 1875 Notes and Dissertations Upon the Prophecy of Hosea John Sharpe, 1884
