Walk The Worlds Rim:

Walk the World's Rim Betty Baker, 1965-01-01 Chakoh a young Apache of the sixteenth century learns from Esteban a Spanish slave the Spaniard's way of life as well as the meaning of such virtues as honor and courage Walk the World's Rim Betty BAKER (Novelist.), 1965 Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer, 1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children's literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself Recreating the Past Lynda G. Adamson, 1994-06-30 Spanning grades 1-10 this annotated bibliography of 970 recommended American and world titles published through early 1994 includes adult titles suitable for young readers at least 200 of the titles are award winners In support of interdisciplinary English and social studies curricula librarians and teachers can easily assemble a basic list of books on a geographical place and time period Geographical sections are divided into historical time periods within which entries are organized alphabetically by author Each entry contains both reading and interest grade levels a short incisive annotation about the historical event setting plot protagonist and theme current publication availability and awards won Seven reference appendices allow for easy searching These helpful appendices and an authors a titles and an illustrators index help to make this volume a critical professional tool Masterplots II. Frank Northen Magill, 1991 *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
