Waltham Chronicle:

The Waltham Chronicle Translators, Leslie Watkiss, 1994 The Waltham Chronicle is an interesting example of a twelfth century historia fundacionis Written by one of the secular canons of Waltham just after the refoundation of the house as an Augustinian priory later abbey in 1177 it records the legends of the original foundation and miracle stories together with historical information about the pre Conquest benefactors the internal organization of the community the burial of Harold after the Battle of Hastings and events during Stephen s reign Its value is much more than that of a local history because of its connection with the literary romances of Harold Godwinson the religious context of the theology of the Cross and the general movement to replace secular colleges by houses of regular Benedictine monks or Augustinian canons This is the first published translation printed with the original text edited from the two manuscripts containing the Chronicle with full introduction historical notes and apparatus criticus by Leslie Watkiss and Marjorie Chibnall The English and Their Legacy, 900-1200 David Roffe, 2012 The dynamics of medieval societies in England and beyond form the focus of these essays on the Anglo Norman world Over the last fifty years Ann Williams has transformed our understanding of Anglo Saxon and Norman society in her studies of personalities and elites In this collection leading scholars in the field revisit themes that have been central to her work and open up new insights into the workings of the multi cultural communities of the realm of England in the early Middle Ages There are detailed discussions of local and regional elites and the interplay between them that fashioned the distinctive institutions of local government in the pre Conquest period radical new readings of key events such as the crisis of 1051 and a reassessment of the Bayeux Tapestry as the beginnings of the Historia Anglorum studies of the impact of the Norman Conquest and the survival of the English and explorations of the social political and administrative cultures in post Conquest England and Normandy The individual essays are united overall by the articulation of the local regional and national identities that shaped the societies of the period Contributors S D Church William Aird Lucy Marten Hirokazu Tsurushima Valentine Fallan Judith Everard Vanessa King Pamela Taylor Charles Insley Simon Keynes Sally Harvey K S B Keats Rohan David Bates Emma Mason David Roffe Mark Hagger The Normans in Europe Elisabeth M. C. Van Houts, 2000-12-15 This book provides a selection from the abundant source material generated by the Normans and the peoples they conquered It takes a wide European perspective on the Normans assessing and explaining Norman expansion their political and social organization and their eventual decline The Normans in Europe explores the process of assimilation between Scandinavians and Franks and the emergence of Normandy the internal organization of the principality with a variety of source materials from chronicles miracle stories and chapters the role of women and children in Norman society and a variety of other areas Searching for the Last Anglo-Saxon King Paula Lofting, 2025-04-28 A reexamination of Harold Godwinson explores his life reign and legacy challenging Norman propaganda and historical myths Harold Godwinson occupied his place in the chronicles for more than twenty years after bursting onto the political sphere when he was barely out of his teens His role in English history has always been overshadowed by his failure to defend his crown and country against the might of William the Conqueror and his invaders His demise at the hands of a Franco Norman hit squad wrought the death knell of Anglo Saxon rule Reigning for just ten months Harold s accomplishments as dux Anglorum and later king of England were undermined by the Norman propaganda that was waged against his memory long after his grisly end in 1066 But just who was this man who some historians recall as one of England s greatest rulers What were his origins Is there any truth that he could trace his ancestry to the House of Wessex and did he really usurp the throne from Duke William the Bastard of Normandy In this re examining of this great historical figure of the eleventh century we glean new theories and ideas not only about Harold s life but also questions historians have pondered upon for years Did Edward really offer the throne to William And how much of William s claim was truth or fiction Paula Lofting presents a thoughtful and careful critique of the previous research Examining his life through a telescopic view of the primary sources she offers the reader a more accurate evaluation of who he was how he died and what happened to his remains after his death on a field near Hastings on October 1066

Anglo-Norman Studies XLII S. D. Church,2020 A series which is a model of its kind Edmund King The wide ranging articles collected here represent the cutting edge of recent Anglo Norman scholarship There is a particular focus on historical sources for the eleventh and twelfth centuries and especially on the key texts which are used by historians in understanding the past There are articles on Eadmer s Historia Novorum Dudo of Saint Quentin s Historia Normannorum the historical profession at Durham and the use of charters to understand the role of women in the Norman march of Wales Other contributions examine canon law in late twelfth century England and Angevin rule in Normandy in the time of Henry fitz Empress The Old English world is also represented in the volume there is a fresh investigation into Harold Godwineson s posthumous reputation and a new interpretation of the reign of Aethelred the Unready S D CHURCH is Professor of Medieval History at the University of East Anglia Contributors Emma Cavell Catherine Cubitt John Gillingham Mark Hagger Fraser McNair Charles C Rozier Nicholas Ruffini Ronzani Danica Summerlin Ann Williamsam Mark Hagger Fraser McNair Charles C Rozier Nicholas Ruffini Ronzani Danica Summerlin Ann Williamsam Mark Hagger Fraser McNair Charles C Rozier Nicholas Ruffini Ronzani Danica Summerlin Ann Williams
