S. Lewis...* Clive Staples Lewis, 1955 'Surprised by Joy' C. S. Lewis, Asino Calcio, 2014-06-20 Surprised by Joy The Shape of My Early Life is a partial autobiography published by C S Lewis in 1955 Specifically the book describes the author's conversion from atheism to theism and eventually to Christianity Lewis translates his joy as longing and finds it so intense that he has no suitable words to explain it The Unknown Garden of Another's Heart Joseph A. Kohm Jr., 2022-01-06 In April of 1914 fifteen year old C S Lewis walked into a sick neighbor's bedroom for a visit This neighbor eighteen year old Arthur Greeves was reading a book titled Myths of the Norsemen Their meeting was a spark that would fan into a flame a friendship that lasted almost fifty years Drawing on original research of the 296 letters written by Lewis to Greeves that span the life of their friendship readers will explore the deep emotional and raw relationship of two dissimilar people where each unveiled himself to the other in ways they did with no one else Embedded in this relationship is the trajectory of Lewis's faith journey starting out as an arrogant skeptic and transforming into the greatest apologist of the last one hundred years Readers will be drawn into this beautiful friendship and in turn become better friends to those around them Weltanschauung and Apologia Elias Hofer, 2022-10-11 This book allows us to accompany C S Lewis on his intellectual and spiritual journey from atheism to pantheism and eventually to Christianity It analyzes key elements of Lewis's Christian worldview and identifies challenges leveled against it from alternative worldviews It examines Lewis's apologetic methodology highlighting how it was shaped by his worldview and provides an analysis of Lewis's specific responses to a number of objections The project also serves as a comparative analysis of worldviews particularly as they relate to truth claims of the Christian faith The notion of worldview is critical to the formulation of views One's worldview determines how reality is perceived It's characterized as a set of glasses through which we view our surroundings and interpret experiences It accounts for the perspective we bring to every event in life and helps explain why different people see things differently when looking at the same data The same evidence may lead one person to reject a particular conclusion while moving another to embrace what the other rejected Lewis s major works are explored at length in this book Although much has been written about Lewis Hofer s examination of the influence of worldview on his work is unique Surprised by Joy: the Shape of My Early Life C.
