International Relations in general The God that Failed. By André Gide, Richard Wright, Ignazio Silone, Stephen Spender, Arthur Koestler, Louis Fischer. Richard Crossman, Editor. (6th Printing.). Richard Howard Stafford Crossman, Louis FISCHER (Writer on Russia.), Arthur Koestler, Ignazio SILONE (pseud.), Stephen Spender, Richard Wright, 1964 Three Roads to the Welfare State Bryan Fanning, 2021-09-03 The development of social policy in Europe is explored in this accessible intellectual history and analysis of the welfare state From the Industrial Revolution onwards the book identifies three important concepts behind efforts to address social concerns in Europe social democracy Christian democracy and liberalism With guides to the political and ideological protagonists and the beliefs and values that lie behind reforms it traces the progress and legacies of each of the three traditions For academics and students across social policy and the political economy this is an illuminating new perspective on the welfare state through the last two centuries The God That Failed: Liberalism and the Destruction of the West John Q. Publius, 2020-05-14 Something's not right All around us society seems to be sinking into decay and we don't recognize let alone even know the people living right next door to us The media sells illusory progress with the latest gadgets and fads and for all the talk of social justice there's scant justice to be had Alienation violence dereliction and despair fester as the wounds turn septic and the people are literally sick to death The nameless system of neo liberalism is the worst of both worlds a government willing to play God going so far as to generate an entirely new population amenable to their designs a global population of rootless producers and consumers and an oligarchic set of international bankers and businessmen who've seen to it that the game is rigged in their favor This is a system of irreconcilable contradictions one that peddles equality but produces the greatest material disparity It peddles liberty while crushing all dissent It celebrates diversity but is soul crushingly uniform Its illusory progress looks more like a medieval fiefdom than the always just out of reach utopia the charlatans promise is just around the corner with one more concession always more until there's nothing left The God That Failed will drag the hideous nameless system into the light and expose its hypocrisy lies and destruction The God that Did Not Fail Robert Royal, 2006 In this book Robert Royal offers an original reading of religion in ancient Greece and Rome of Christianity and Judaism the Middle Ages the Renaissance and Reformation the several modern Enlightenments culminating with a profound assessment of our current postmodern moment He concludes that since religion is a permanent part of human nature and of the particular character of the West our efforts should be directed not into a quixotic effort to deny the undeniable especially as we face challenges from Islamic fundamentalism but into promoting a well thought out and dynamic interplay of faith reason and modern freedom

Retreat from the Finland Station Kenneth Murphy, 1992 In examining the lives of leading revolutionaries Nicolai Bukharin Milovan Djilas Imre Nagy and Alexander Dubcek and writers Andre Gide Arthur Koestler Ignazio Silone and even the young Alexander Solzhenitsyn who became prisoners rather than masters of the bloodshed their adherence to socialism seemed to unleash Murphy reveals to us the terrible moral consequences they suffered as their faith in socialism crumbled

He compellingly shows how their idealistic vision spawned a world of want anger terror and death For blind obedience to the socialist cause allowed the new state to perpetuate indeed to incarnate the violence out of which it was born In so doing the idea of revolutionary liberty was devoured Freedom surrendered to Stalinist terror political innocence to Communist corruption eloquence to the silence of the gulag The God that Answereth by Fire William Lowndes,1917 The Rhetorical Presidency, Propaganda, and the Cold War, 1945-1955 Shawn J. Parry-Giles,2002 Both Truman and Eisenhower combined bully pulpit activity with presidentially directed messages voiced by surrogates whose words were as orchestrated by the administration as those delivered by the presidents themselves A Review of the private strategizing sessions concerning propaganda activity and the actual propaganda disseminated by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations reveals how they both militarized propaganda operations allowing the president of the United States to serve as the commander in chief of propaganda activity As the presidents minimized congressional control over propaganda operations they institutionalized propaganda as a presidential tool expanded the means by which they and their successors could perform the rhetorical presidency and increased presidential power over the country s Cold War message naturalizing the Cold War ideology that resonates yet today Of particular interest to scholars and students of political communication the modern presidency and Cold War history The Saturday Evening Post ,1914 *The God that Failed.
