The Prisons:

The Prison Gordon Hawkins, 1976 Despite lethal explosions of violence from within and critical assaults from without it seems certain that prisons will continue to exist for the foreseeable future Gordon Hawkins argues that certain key issues which attend the use of imprisonment as a penal method must be dealt with realistically Beginning with a discussion of the ideology of imprisonment and the principal lines of criticism directed at it Hawkins examines such issues as the prisonization hypothesis the theory that prisons serve as a training ground for criminals the role of the prison guard work in prisons and the use of prisoners as research subjects for medical experiments He also deals with the prisoners rights movement and its implications for the future of prison administration Hawkins not only makes specific recommendations for reform he also carefully appraises the barriers which obstruct their implementation Hawkins devotes a large portion of this relatively short book to a discussion of some of the really crucial policy activities that tend to stifle meaningful reform and then goes on to tell how at least some of these policies can be altered The book concludes with a chapter devoted to a discussion of impediments to change that should be required reading for all serious students of penology Choice Hawkins has added a much needed down to earth analysis of prison This is not a pessimistic book It is a realistic book It avoids the pitfall of utopian and single factor solutions to an extremely complex problem Graeme R Newman Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science The Prisons Memory Archive: A Case Study in Filmed Memory of Conflict Jolene Mairs Dyer, Conor McCafferty, Cahal McLaughlin, 2022-09-06 The Prisons Memory Archive PMA explores ways that narratives of a conflicted past are filmed at the site of the experiences and later negotiated in a contested present in the North of Ireland Given the state's failed attempts at establishing an official process for addressing the legacy of the conflict that lasted between 1968 and 1998 there are a number of community and academic initiatives that have taken up this task The Prisons Memory Archive is one such project whose aim is to research the possibilities of engaging with the story of the other in a society that is emerging from decades of political violence The PMA filmed back inside the prisons with those who passed through Armagh Gaol 2006 and the Maze and Long Kesh Prison 2007 which were both touchstone and tinderbox during the 30 years of violent conflict We applied protocols of co ownership where participants become co authors of their own story with the right to withdraw up to the point of exhibition inclusivity to ensure a multi narrative archive with prison staff prisoners visitors teachers chaplains etc and life story telling where leading questions are eschewed in order to return more agency to the participants Currently the full archive made up of 160 walk and talk recordings totaling 300 hours of filmed material is available at the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland where it is preserved and made accessible to the public and a website has been designed for educational use of the archive This collection offers critical reflections on the processes of recording archiving and utilising the archive in its several manifestations e g feature films website and full archive at the Public Records Office The perspectives offer a range of reflections including filming editing archiving web design education
