The Best Part of Prison Jesse Crosson, 2026-03-10

An unvarnished deeply human account of one man's time in prison and his unexpected journey to healing accountability transformation and redemption At 18 Jesse Crosson was considered a lost cause Strung out on drugs he committed a robbery and later a nonfatal shooting For those choices he was sentenced to 32 years nearly twice as long as the maximum recommended by sentencing guidelines No one expected his story to end well But for Jesse prison was not the end It became the beginning of a long path toward redemption In The Best Part of Prison Jesse reveals how a system meant to rehabilitate so often alienates and destroys describing both the daily brutality of incarceration and the added cruelty of surviving the COVID 19 pandemic behind bars Across four prisons shoulder to shoulder with people convicted of every imaginable crime Jesse anticipated only the worst Instead he discovered teachers friends trauma survivors striving to heal victims seeking repair and even hardened lifers who became unlikely mentors Within that crucible he confronted what it means to cause harm to make amends and to rediscover humanity Now a pardoned advocate for criminal justice reform and the founder of the Second Chancer Foundation Jesse shares a story that exposes the inequity of today's justice system champions rehabilitation and restorative justice and demonstrates the redemptive power of accountability education and human connection Electric and deeply felt from the slam of a cell door to the awe of seeing the night sky after 19 years The Best Part of Prison reminds us that second chances are always possible and that none of us are defined solely by our worst moments

Closing the Equity Gap Freada Kapor Klein,Mitchell Kapor,2023-03-14 A social activist and an entrepreneur remake the future of investing and business offering a win win road map for creating wealth and addressing inequalities by investing in groundbreaking tech companies that defy assumptions from Silicon Valley to Wall Street Companies backed by venture capital drive the U S economy accounting for hundreds of billions of dollars in sales and profits The problem is that most of the wealth created winds up enriching elites while the businesses funded by venture capitalists widen economic inequality Committed to doing things differently tech venture capitalists Freada Kapor Klein and Mitch Kapor launched Kapor Capital to prove that investing in gap closing startups companies whose services or products close opportunity gaps for both communities of color and low income communities is good business Over the past decade they ve broadened the definition of success to include profits and accountability for the impacts a business has on employees communities and the planet helping to launch close to two hundred companies engaged in achieving social and economic justice while showing remarkable growth with many valued in the hundreds of millions or billions of dollars Like every VC firm Kapor Capital has experienced high profile blowups and total losses But its investing principles have created a stunning new ecosystem of Black and Latinx entrepreneurs CEOs and investors all devising innovative effective solutions to address the most pernicious problems afflicting many of America s poorest communities In Closing the Equity Gap Freada and Mitch share their core belief that all companies must make a positive impact and that the obstacles entrepreneurs overcome in life are a far better predictor of long term success than the schools they attend or investment dollars they raise from friends and family Using stories behind some of the most remarkable companies ever launched they show that the standard investment model doesn t work how it can be fixed and what the future could look like if more investors joined them

Power Moms Joann S. Lublin,2021-02-16 A retired Wall Street Journal editor and mother compares two generations of women boomers and GenXers to examine how each navigates the emotional and professional challenges involved in juggling managerial careers and families For the first time in American history a significant number of mothers are heading major corporations including General Motors Ulta Beauty and Best Buy Over the past several decades women have made gains throughout executive suites Yet these Power Moms still struggle with balancing their management responsibilities with raising children Joann S Lublin draws on the experiences of the nation s two generations of these successful women to measure how far we ve come and how far we still need to go Lublin combines her own insights with those of eighty five executive mothers across industries including experienced public company chiefs such as Carol Bartz the first woman to command Autodesk and Yahoo Hershey s Michele Buck DuPont s Ellen Kullman ITT s Denise Ramos and WW International s Mindy Grossman and twenty five of their grown daughters Lublin reveals how trailblazer boomers many now in their sixties often endured sweeping disapproval for their demanding management careers even as their own daughters sometimes rejected their choices While the second wave of executive mothers all under forty five handle working parenthood with less angst they still lead stressful lives Power Moms provides lessons and advice to help today s professional women their families and their employers navigate this challenging terrain Lublin looks at the trade offs mothers are too often forced to make between work and family and the root causes including the dearth of large scale paid parental leave and other family friendly policies While it celebrates the gains women have made Power Moms makes clear how much more must be done to make being a working mother easier
