State and Society in Dār Fūr Rex S. O'Fahey,1980 State and Society in Dār Fūr Rex S. O'Fahey,1980 Darfur's Sorrow M. W. Daly,2010-05-24 Darfur s Sorrow is the first general history of Darfur to be published in any language The book surveys events from before the founding of the Fur sultanate in the sixteenth century through the rise and establishment of the Fur state and its incorporation into the Anglo Egyptian Sudan in 1916 The narrative continues with detailed coverage of the brief but all important colonial period 1916 1956 and Darfur s history as a neglected peripheral region since independence The political economic environmental and social factors that gave rise to the current humanitarian crisis are discussed in detail as are the course of Darfur s rebellion its brutal suppression by the Sudanese government and the lawless brigands known as janjawid The second edition of the book brings the story up to date and includes an analysis of attempts to save Darfur s embattled people and to bring an end to the fighting Competing for Legitimacy Salamah Magnuson,2025-07-18 This book answers the question of why and how people form bonds with each other and with insurgent groups in fragile state contexts It develops an overarching framework depicting a political social contract presents the Grievance Driven Pathway as one way through which a reformist insurgency society contract can form and conducts a systematic comparison using two novel case studies not yet evaluated in insurgency literature the UFDR in the Central African Republic and the SLM A in Darfur Sudan The core claim is that perceptions of legitimacy across the four social contract elements lead to consent to form the intangible bond and foster societal and political trust Studying social contracts specifically the interaction between state society contracts and reformist insurgency society contracts facilitates a greater understanding of what constitutes legitimacy in the twenty first century and how perceptions of illegitimacy can lead to a breakdown of trust and the outbreak of violent conflict Sudan John O. Voll,1991-11-22 a very fine collection of superb articles well written beautifully researched Robert O Collins an adept well rounded and well organized treatment of Sudan s many obstacles to national development The book s greatest strengths are drawn from the expertise of its contributors as well as its multidisciplinary approach to complex questions MESA Bulletin Beyond Rigidity Mu Ren,2021-01-23 This book investigates China s foreign policy concerning the principle of non intervention in domestic affairs of other states in the post Cold War period The principle of non intervention has traditionally been central to Chinese foreign policy but as China s economy has boomed international attention to her foreign policy has been increasingly hostile Accordingly an exploration of China s non intervention policy is worthwhile to understand China s foreign policy and its international behavior This book will be of interest to China watchers scholars of geopolitics and Asian historians State Legitimacy and Failure in International Law Mario Silva,2014-02-06 Failing states share characteristics of inadequate structural competency including inter alia the inability to advance human welfare and security Economic inequalities and corruption are present as well as a loss of legitimacy and reduced social cohesion Failure of rule of law is manifested in areas of judicial adjudication security reduced territorial control and systemic political instability The international community often confronts these challenges in a manner that actually complicates issues further through lack of consensus among state actors Consequently a new and emerging concept of sovereignty requires review in terms of the postmodern state Through scholarly consideration State Legitimacy and Failure in International Law evaluates gaps in structural competency that precipitate state failure and examines the resulting consequences for the world community Sudanow ,1998 Muslim Identity and Social Change in Sub-Saharan Africa Louis Brenner,1993 This volume is indispensable to anyone who wants to understand current trends in Islam in Africa MESA Bulletin A must read for anyone interested in Muslim identity and social change in sub Saharan Africa Religious Studies Review The Brenner volume develops a broader range of issues on African Muslim communities than any existing study John Hanson These essays constitute a timely exploration of the dynamism of Islam as a force for shaping identity and for social and political change across Africa today

Performance Report on the Budget of the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operations in Dafur for the Period from 1 July 2008 to 30 June 2009 ,2009

Dealing with Government in South Sudan Cherry Leonardi,2013 Explores various aspects of chiefly authority in South Sudan from its historical origins and evolution under colonial postcolonial and military rule to its current roles and value in the newly independent country South Sudan became Africa s newest nation in 2011 following decades of armed conflict Chiefs or traditional authorities became a particular focus of attention during the international relief effort and post war reconstruction and state building But traditional authority in South Sudan has been much misunderstood Institutions of chiefship were created during the colonial period but originated out of a much longer process of dealing with predatory external forces This book addresses a significant paradox in African studies more widely if chiefs were the product of colonial states why have they survived or revived in recent decades By examining the long term history of chiefship in the vicinity of three towns the book also argues for a new approach to the history of towns in South Sudan Towns have previously been analysed as the loci of alien state power yet the book demonstrates that these government centres formed an expanding urban frontier on which people actively sought knowledge and resources of the state Chiefs mediated relations on and across this frontier and in the process chiefship became central to constituting both the state and local communities Cherry

Leonardi is Senior Lecturer in African History at Durham University a former course director of the Rift Valley Institute s Sudan course and a member of the council of the British Institute in Eastern Africa Published in association with the British Institute in Eastern Africa

Negotiating Development in Muslim Societies Gudrun Lachenmann,Petra Dannecker,2008-05-29 Through networking and globalized modes of interaction and communication women s organizations in Muslim countries negotiate global development concepts such as human rights and gender equality thereby differentiating and reconstructing local visions of muslim society and po

Failed and Failing States Raj Bardouille,Margaret Grieco,2010-01-08 State collapse is one of the major threats to peace stability and economic development in sub Saharan

Africa today In a collapsed state the regime finally wears out its ability to satisfy the demands of the various groups in society it fails to govern or to keep the state together The collapse is marked by the loss of control over political and economic space A collapsed state can no longer perform its basic security and development functions and has no effective control over its territory and borders Efforts to avoid drawing other nations into a wider conflict created by the collapse of a state and creating favorable conditions for reconciliation and reconstruction of a failed state after it has collapsed present major challenges In April 2008 the Cornell Institute for African Development called a symposium on Failed and Failing States in Africa Lessons from Darfur and Beyond to address these critical issues Key contributions to the symposium are brought together in this volume Taken together these essays represent a significant discussion on the challenges presented by the presence of failing states within Africa
