At its heart liberation theology is a modern theology of resistance to the oppression imposed by colonialist and post colonialist systems and even by churches that cooperate with secular centers of power to oppress the poor and disadvantaged It is a grassroots social justice theology a cri de c ur that seeks to give spiritual succor and hope to those living in seemingly hopeless circumstances Palestinians a people whose suffering has largely been forgotten by the world since Israel's establishment and who are most often stereotyped as extremists and enemies of Israel with no legitimate claim to their own homeland are among the world's most marginalized populations The small Palestinian Christian community an indigenous population descended from Jesus's first followers has created a liberation theology for the Palestinian context that reaches out to its own Christian faithful and their Muslim compatriots This is a nonviolent political theological resistance that follows Jesus's teaching that God is present with all God's children and heeds Jesus's gospel injunctions to comfort the suffering and let the oppressed go free For Palestinians their very survival in the land is resistance to Israel's efforts to remove them and liberation theology sustains their resistance Jesus was the first liberation theologian Way of the Cross with Pope Francis, The Pope Francis,2016 Meditations on the stations of the cross from Pope Francis The Way of the Cross Clemens Schmidt,1978-07 Practically every phrase in THE WAY OF THE CROSS has been culled from Biblical and liturgical sources Consequently the reflections and prayers are dignified and substantial Wherever this form has been introduced it has received the most hearty approval The Stations are interspersed with stanzas from the Stabat Mater set to the traditional melody Large and clear type makes the booklet eminently suitable for congregational use The words of the Benediction chants are added Way of the Cross Phillipus Montanus,2016-12-20 The devotion of the Way of the Cross should be very dear to the heart of every fervent Catholic The saints have recommended that we meditate on our Savior's sufferings every day or at least every Friday and one of the easiest ways of doing this is to pray the Stations or the Way of the Cross It has always been the opinion of the saints that a Christian who meditates with love on the sufferings of Christ gains more spiritual benefit than another who practices rigorous penances or says long prayers The Way of the Cross is one of the most beautiful devotions we can perform and at the same time one of the richest in blessings not only because of the great number of indulgences which the Popes have attached to it during the centuries but more especially because of its sublime object the Passion and death of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ Meditation on the Passion is a powerful means to avoid sin to subdue indifference and to attain perfection St Leonard of Port Maurice one of the most fervent propagators of the devotion of the Way of the Cross was accustomed to say The exercise of the Way of the Cross alone is sufficient to sanctify a parish and also to attract to it temporal blessings This devotion is capable of producing four special fruits of grace in the soul 1 The love of Jesus Christ 2 Contrition for sin 3 Conformity to the holy will of God 4 Perseverance in virtue Treatise on the way of sorrows Alexis Bulens,1882 Handbook to Christian and Ecclesiastical Rome: The liturgy in Rome. By M. A. R. Toker. Feasts and functions of the church. The ceremonies of Holy week Mildred Anna Rosalie Toker,Hope Malleson,1900
