The essays argue that such border crossings reflect on recent sociocultural transformations and geopolitical anxieties to create an image of networked and interconnected societies where crime is not easily contained. The book further analyses crime texts' wider sociocultural and affective significance by examining the global mobility of the genre itself across cultures, languages, and media. Underlining the global reach and mobility of the crime genre, the collection analyses types and representations of mobility in literary and visual crime narratives, inviting comparisons between texts, crimes, and mobilities in a geographically diverse context. The collection ultimately understands mobility as an object of study and a critical lens through which transformations in our globalised world can be examined.      The Bookman, 1890      The Religion of the Tempasuk Dusuns of North Borneo I. H. N. Evans,2012-02-02 This 1953 volume describes the Dusun people of the Tempasuk region in what was formerly North Borneo.      Stolen Souls Debra Dunbar,2014 Nyalla is dog sitting for Satan. It's a sweet gig for a girl who up until recently had been a slave to the elves in Hell. The house is amazing; she's got the key to the Corvette and although Boomer is a Hellhound, he's also a lovable slobbery companion. When a newly interred corpse vanishes, followed by a series of grisly murders, Nyalla can't help but wonder if Boomer's odd diet has taken a deadly turn. Could the dog be to blame, or is there a more sinister creature on the loose? Nyalla must stop who is behind it all before more die and before the county puts Boomer on death row.      Stolen Souls (Classic Reprint) William Le Queux,2018-01-20 Excerpt from Stolen Souls: Wrapped in furs until only my nose and eyes were visible, I was walking along the Nevski Prospekt in St. Petersburg one winter's evening and almost involuntarily turned into the Dominique, that fashionable restaurant which garish in its blaze of electricity is situated in the most frequented part of the long broad thoroughfare. It was the dining hour and the place heated by high grotesquely ornamented stoves was filled with officers, ladies, and cigarette smoke while the savory smell of national dishes mingled judiciously with those of foreign lands At the table next the one at which I seated myself were two persons a man and a woman About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
