Eleven Hidden Gems in the Works of the Inklings Eugene Terekhin, 2022-10-03 An in depth study on the philosophy of the Inklings Listed on the official website of the Owen Barfield Literary Estate as recommended reading Tolkien's Middle earth started with a name the author came across a strangely sounding name of Earendel when reading a piece of old Anglo Saxon literature On reading the first few lines of the poem he felt a curious thrill as if something had stirred in me half wakened from sleep There was something very remote and strange and beautiful behind those words This encounter with the sound of a name was a call from beyond the veil of the world which Tolkien later described as the primary reality The stories of his legendarium were crafted around that name For Tolkien the narrative was a secondary reality a sub creation The Name was primary There is a secret literary theory behind the fantasy worlds of J R R Tolkien C S Lewis and Owen Barfield who believed that when words are spoken aright they invoke the invisible reality from behind the veil of the world Words effect what they name For the Inklings words are NOT primarily communication tools They are not the things we use to convey a message Strictly speaking the message doesn't come THROUGH words rather words are the incarnation of the message provided they are Spirit breathed This seems to be the overarching sentiment and a source of inspiration for all the Inklings for them the world is Music a Sound condensed into matter It is the Music of Iluvatar clad in stone water and grass It is the Name breathed into a Story It is Poetry incarnated in the pattering of rain In modern day movies and stories based on the works of the Inklings this call from beyond the curtain of the world is often missing We see a linear narrative that draws us in by its incessant action but we feel that something is amiss These movies are made to entertain but they don't do even that Tolkien's stories are entertaining in a different way it's not the story that matters but the Name behind it Not what happens but who it happens to The Name is the primary reality a summons from behind the veil of the world Unless the storyteller gets the mind of the Inklings they will create parody Modern writers use language and storytelling as communication tools With this approach the only purpose of using words is to convey the message As a result the choice of words becomes message driven Words are used to get the reader to move on from one word to the next one horizontally to bring them to the message as quickly as possible Peter Kreeft a philosophy professor at Boston College pointed out that in modern writing words have lost their vertical static quality Each word comes more from the preceding word rather than from the silence It moves on to the next word in front of it rather than to the silence For the Inklings language is not a communication tool but rather a portal into being the invisible reality summoned into our world by the shape and sound of words Properly speaking words are incantations Have you ever heard words that make you stop breathing for a moment or two If you have you know why the writings of J R R Tolkien C S Lewis Owen Barfield and other Inklings are so peculiar They use words vertically not to speed the reader on but to allure them to the music of the silence around the words As Treebeard said Don't be hasty Master Meriadoc This book has eleven chapters corresponding to the eleven hidden gems scattered throughout the works of J R R
