Annotated Books Received ,2002 Russian Life ,2005 Glas Aleksandr Pokrovskii, Marii Galina,2007 Requiem for the Living Alan Cherchesov,2005 Maybe time in itself does not exist at all and there exists instead only a spider s web of endless histories and tales tracing patterns in the boundless and deafening deep of eternity Maybe Time is but a means of retelling them and listening to them Requiem for the Living is the life story of an orphan boy who grows up alone in a mountain village in the Caucasus and then leaves his home to find fame but not happiness Wherever he tries to settle down he seems always to cause chaos and despair in a hitherto peaceful community When he leaves the inhabitants are changed and resentful living with the consequences of the events that he has set in motion questioning the nature and the basis of their former existence No matter how rootless the boy may seem or wish to be human contact and the bonds of love and family are inescapable and catch up with him in the end The boy s unique abilities and alienation underscore the distinctive Caucasian culture and their strict code of honor Sea Stories Aleksandr Pokrovskii,2007 Sea Stories depicts the realities of life inside the army Alexander Pokrovsky s cycle of satirical stories about the trials and trivialities of life on a nuclear submarine are both funny and frightening Alexander Terekhov relates his traumatic first hand experiences in the army without losing sight of man s better nature Slavic Review ,2005 War & Peace Natalii Perova, Joanne Turnbull,2006 WAR Army problems are currently much debated in Russian society There is a vast online library of army stories but publishers are reluctant to print them since their exposure of the real situation in the army particularly in the Caucasus would anger the authorities The overarching message of these stories is that any war inevitably sows hatred among otherwise peaceful people Arkady Babchenko s Argun an autobiographical account of life as an ordinary young soldier in Russia s Chechnya war takes the raw and mundane reality of army life and twists it into compelling chilling and eerily beautiful prose Denis Butov s Five Days of War plunges you into the midst of fierce fighting and a miraculous salvation from sure death His How Dreams Don t Come True is about an ex serviceman s inability to reintegrate into peaceful life after his army stint in Chechnya Dmitry Bykov s Christ depicts the army as a harsh male world with crude practices and sadistic hazing that drives young men to suicide and insanity Roman Senchin s story 24 Hours relates the events of one day in his bleak existence as a border guard He depicts vividly the soldiers longing for discharge Julia Latynina exposes corrupt administrations in the Caucasus They openly disregard the law in order to maintain their totalitarian rule but they also have to comply with the local mafia lords and rebel chieftains PEACE Women s stories are a sharp contrast to the War section They immerse you in the world of basic human values such as love children and family but also highlight problems with aging generation gap and violence against women The stories reflect the current stage in the evolution of

Russian women's fiction which displays confident craftsmanship wide thematic range and high stylistic standards Olga Slavnikova's The Secret of the Unread Notepaper paints a vivid portrait of a small provincial town where a very average modern young woman still yearns for love and tries various ways of getting it In Maria Galina's End of the Summer the mysterious appearance of a little clairvoyant girl wreaks havoc on the leisurely life of a childless couple The wife's longing for motherhood turns out to be stronger than her love for her husband Maria Rybakova looks at the eternal drama of aging in her fine psychological narrative A Sting in the Flesh in which an old lady inadvertently kills the emerging love between two young people Maria Arbatova's The Last Letter conveys the modern woman's rebellion against the traditional dependency implicit in male female relationships Marina Kulakova's story Alive Again investigates the psychology of the rapist and the victim as well as showing the roots of such phenomena and the public's indifference to the problem The Scared

Combined Arms Warfare in the Twentieth Century Jonathan Mallory House, 2001 For centuries the world has witnessed the development and use of increasingly complex and powerful military systems and technologies In the process the art of war has truly become the art of combined arms warfare in which infantry artillery air support intelligence and other key elements are all coordinated for maximum effect Nowhere has this trend been more visible than in the history of twentieth century warfare Originally published as an essential in house study for U S Army officers during the 1980s this much revised and expanded edition remains the most complete study available on the subject Rewritten with a much wider readership in mind it both retains its enormous practical utility for military professionals and provides a valuable and appealing introduction for scholars and general readers Jonathan House author of the original work brings the story of combined arms up to the present covering among other things Desert Storm the war in Chechnya and the rise of smart weapons and related technologies He traces the evolution of tactics weapons and organization in five major militaries American British German Russian and French over 100 years of warfare Revealing both continuities and contrasts within and between these fighting forces he also provides illuminating glimpses of Israeli and Japanese contributions to combined arms doctrine Expanding his insightful analysis of the world wars and the wars in Korea and Vietnam House also offers much new material focused on the post Vietnam period Throughout he analyzes such issues as command and control problems of highly centralized organizations the development of special operations forces advances in weapons technology including ballistic and anti ballistic missile systems the trade offs involved in using heavy versus light armed forces and the enduring obstacles to effective cooperation between air and land forces His strong critique of the air superiority propaganda that came out of the Gulf War is sure to spark some heated debates Rigorously comparative House's study addresses significant questions about
