Strange Trades:

Strange Trades Paul Di Filippo, 2014-04-01 Full of storytelling that is untamed writing that is superb and tales that are expansive and suggestive a wry romp worthy of your attention Strange Horizons In these eleven stories including Nebula Award finalist Kid Charlemagne Paul Di Filippo applies his armamentarium of vastly varied literary skills to an examination and definition of the outer limits of an almost unbearably mundane sounding subject daily toil or in a word jobs In Spondulix Rory Honeyman desperate to preserve the meager cash flow in his sandwich shop starts offering store coupons that somehow take on a life of their own The Mill is the only place in the universe where Luxcloth treasured and worn by many can be manufactured and only at the direction of one man The Boredom Factory gives meaning to the phrase living to work Keep reading it will be the easiest job you've ever had You can try to escape from the mundane or with the help of Paul Di Filippo you can take a brief meaningful break from it In the vein of George Saunders or Michael Chabon Di Filippo uses the tools of science fiction and the surreal to take a deep richly felt look at humanity His brand of funny quirky thoughtful fast moving heart warming brain bending stories exist across the entire spectrum of the fantastic from hard science fiction to satire to fantasy and on to horror delivering a riotously entertaining string of modern fables and stories from tomorrow now and anytime After you read Paul Di Filippo you will no longer see everyday life quite the same Strange Trades includes an introduction by Bruce Sterling

The Last Trade James Conway, 2013-02-05 James Conway has written the corporate thriller for our age an age when the power of new media and the hunger of Wall Street converge to form a deadly entity capable of bringing the global economy to its knees Drew Havens made a killing for the Rising Fund which thanks to his prognostications was the only hedge operation to anticipate and capitalize on the mortgage crisis of 2008 Havens sees things others can't from the collapse of the American real estate market to the multibillion dollar rise of his ruthless and charismatic boss Havens is rich beyond his dreams but his work has cost him his marriage And now it may cost him his life It starts with the brutal murder of his young protégé and over the course of six days six other brokers around the world each killed after executing a trade linked to the Rising Fund And as the violence escalates to an international level Havens frantically tries to construct a model that will reveal the catastrophic event that only he can see coming and confirm that his boss and the Rising Fund are at the center of it

Scores John Clute, 2016-11-24 For more than 50 years John Clute has been reviewing science fiction and fantasy As Scores demonstrates his devotion to the task of understanding the central literatures of our era has not slackened There are jokes in Scores and curses and tirades and apologies and riffs but every word of every review in the end is about how we understand the stories we tell about the world Following on from his two previous books of collected reviews Strokes and Look at the Evidence this book collects reviews from a wide variety of sources but mostly from Interzone the New York Review of Science Fiction and Science Fiction Weekly Where it has seemed possible to do so without distorting contemporary responses to books these reviews have been revised sometimes extensively 125 review articles over 200 books
