Social Science Abstracts ,1930 Traditions & Beliefs of Ancient Israel Thomas Kelly Cheyne, 1907 The Biblical Flood Davis A. Young, 1995 Using the biblical flood as an example Young contends that the church has not always handled evidence well in grappling with scientific matters and issues a call to biblical scholars to interpret the Genesis text more rigorously in light of current scientific knowledge The Reflex ,1929 The Names of God Herbert Chanan Brichto, 1998-04-09 This is the sequel to the author s iconoclastic Toward a Grammar of Biblical Poetics Oxford 1992 in which Brichto argues for the aesthetic wholeness of the Hebrew Bible and the consistency of Scripture s preachment on God nature and the human condition in direct opposition to current source criticism which maintains that inconsistencies within the text support an atomistic reading of multiple authors In The Names of God Brichto brings us his poetic reading of Scripture to the Book of Genesis Using contemporary methods and insights of literary criticism he examines one of the great inconsistencies within Genesis that have led to the supposition of multiple authors the assortment of terms or names for the Deity among them Yahweh and Elohim and attempts to show the appropriateness of certain of these names to the stories in which they appear He also looks at a variety of other data within Genesis such as genealogies eponyms and chronologies and shows that their poetical function their variety ingenuity and imaginative whimsy is vital to the structure of the text as a whole In finding a unity in this diversity of materials Brichto makes a strong case for the text as the artistic achievement of a single author
