The Magnificent Defeat:

The Magnificent Defeat Frederick Buechner, 1985-05-08 In The Magnificent Defeat Frederick Buechner examines what it means to follow Christ the lessons of Christmas and Easter the miracles of grace and the magnificent defeat of the human soul of God The Magnificent Defeat Frederick Buechner, 1985 The Magnificent Defeat Frederick Buechner, 1966

Secrets in the Dark Frederick Buechner, 2009-03-17 Frederick Buechner has long been a kindred spirit to those for whom doubt is a constant companion on the journey of faith A passionate writer and preacher Buechner can alter lives with a simple phrase Secrets in the Dark is the definitive collection of his sermons and reveals his gift for storytelling and his compassionate heart This anthology has been organized in chronological order to better chronicle the development of Buechner's ideology throughout his lifetime Drawn from such great works as The Magnificent Defeat A Room Called Remember and The Longing for Home this collection also includes a new introduction and several new previously unpublished sermons Secrets in the Dark will inspire laughter and bring great solace turn the pages and rediscover what it means to be thoughtful about faith Frederick Buechner author of more than thirty works of fiction and non fiction is an ordained Presbyterian minister He has been a finalist for both the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Award and was honored by the American Academy of Arts and Letters His most recent work is Beyond Words Daily Readings in the ABC's of Faith For the uninitiated this volume is the perfect entree to Buechner's writing He eloquently explores the beauty of language the joy and pain of being human the darkness found in human experience and the Bible and the hope of the Gospel Buechner helps us open our eyes ears and hearts to see the world and God in it He teaches us to delight in the mysteriousness of truth Dallas Morning News Stumbling over the Cross Joni S. Sancken, 2016-04-21 It has never been easy to preach about the cross and resurrection of Jesus but difficulties today are particularly challenging Hearers ask tough questions of the church and the Christian faith and they are not satisfied by formulaic answers People are often suspicious of doctrine and are attracted to a broad but vague or pluralistic spirituality rather than the classical claims of Christianity In this climate preachers often see preaching on the central events of the Christian story the crucifixion and resurrection as more of a problem than a possibility more of a burden than a joy They wonder not only how to preach the old old story of cross and resurrection but whether they should preach these themes at all This book addresses these concerns and shows preachers how to preach the cross and resurrection in fresh culturally relevant ways that deepen Christian discipleship Each chapter shows the relevance of preaching the cross for addressing a particular congregational concern What has ironically become a stumbling block in the pulpit the stone that preachers often reject preaching on the cross and resurrection of Jesus can serve as the cornerstone for building up the congregation for discipleship in our world First Thoughts Ken & Val Baker, 2015-10-02 This is a compilation of four previously published rather slenderer books entitled The God of More than Enough Christ the Hope of Glory According to the Power and This Hope we Have It appears now by popular request in one volume to encourage the reading and reflection on God's word every morning. It also contains the revised script of an E book from some years back entitled First Thoughts Be My First Thought in the Morning. As a couple we always try to start and finish each day centred on God's word to let it be our first thought and our last thought. And so First Thoughts still seems to be an appropriate title for the present volume. There's a theme that comes consistently to the surface wherever we travel: it's the theme of God's supply. Everywhere we go we find people hungry for the truth that God is all we need; that He is our supplier that He provides for every single situation. So here are some of those verses that have blessed us in that discovery.

The Christian Life and Hope Alister E. McGrath, 2016-03-25. Again and again Alister McGrath elegantly performs that central task of any teacher to enable his students and readers starting from the familiar ground of what they already know to go on to explore new territory and begin to see an expanded horizon. Church Times Popular author Alister E McGrath explores the great theme of Christian hope and the way in which it transforms and sustains the Christian life in this fifth and final volume in the Heart of Christian Faith series. McGrath reflects on how the creeds give us a framework for Christian living as well as for Christian believing. Full of stories and helpful illustrations this book provides spiritual consideration of the difference that our belief in God makes to the way in which we think about ourselves and the world. Also available in the Heart of Christian Faith series: Faith and Creeds, The Living God, Jesus Christ and The Spirit of Grace. Reading Buechner Jeffrey Munroe, 2019-11-19. Frederick Buechner is one of the most gifted writers of his generation with an important legacy as a memoirist, novelist, theologian and preacher. In this book Buechner expert Jeff Munroe presents a collection of the true essentials from across Buechner's diverse catalog as well as an overview of Buechner's life and a discussion of the state of his literary legacy today. Laughter in a Genevan Gown Marie-Hélène Davies, 1983. The Living Church, 1966.

The Andover Review, 1885. The Eyes of the Heart Frederick Buechner, 2009-10-13. From critically acclaimed author and Pulitzer Prize runner up Frederick Buechner comes another powerfully honest memoir. The Eyes of the Heart Full of poignant insights into his most personal relationships this moving account traces how the author was shaped as much by his family's secrets as by its celebrations. Within the innermost chambers of his consciousness Buechner in his characteristically self-searching style explores the mysteries and truths behind his deepest connections to family, friends and mentors. Extraordinarily moving this memoir follows not chronology but the converging paths of Buechner's imagination and memory. Buechner invites us into his library, his own Magic Kingdom. Surrounded by his beloved books and treasures we discover how they serve as the gateway to Buechner's mind and heart. He draws the reader into his recollections moving seamlessly from reminiscence to contemplation. Buechner recounts events such as the tragic suicide of his father and its continual fallout on his life. Intimate and little known details about his deep friendship with the late poet James Merrill and his ongoing struggle to understand the complexities of his relationship to his mother. This cast of characters comprised of Buechner's relatives and loved ones is brought to vibrant life by his peerless writing and capacity to probe the depths of his own consciousness.

Buechner visits his past with an honest eye and a heart open to the most painful and life altering of realizations heartbreaking and enlightening The Eyes of the Heart is a treasure for any who have ever pondered the meaning and mystery of their own past As one of our finest writers according to author Annie Dillard Frederick Buechner provides yet another chapter in the tale of his life in this gripping memoir tracing the complicated roots and path of his inner life and family with their multitude of intersections The Eyes of the Heart stands as a touching testimonial to the significance of kinship to the author as well as to the legions of readers who have come to regard him as one of their own How to Read the Prophets Buchanan Blake,1892 The Church Standard ,1897 How to Read the Prophets: Isaiah (i. -xxxix.). 3d ed Buchanan Blake,1892 The Reader's Digest De Witt Wallace,Lila Acheson Wallace,1976-04 History of DeKalb County, Indiana ,1885 Painless Childbirth Marguerite Tracy,Mary Brown Sumner Boyd,1915 Gallipoli Today Thomas James Pemberton,1926 A Brotherhood of Heroes Stephen Lucius Gwynn,1910
