Gibran,2016-05-31 You ask me how I became a madman It happened thus One day long before many gods were born I woke from a deep sleep and found all my masks were stolen the seven masks I have fashioned and worn in seven lives I ran mask less through the crowded streets shouting Thieves thieves the cursed thieves Men and women laughed at me and some ran to their houses in fear of me And when I reached the market place a youth standing on a house top cried He is a madman I looked up to behold him the sun kissed my own naked face for the first time For the first time the sun kissed my own naked face and my soul was inflamed with love for the sun and I wanted my masks no more And as if in a trance I cried Blessed blessed are the thieves who stole my masks Thus I became a madman And I have found both freedom of loneliness and the safety from being understood for those who understand us enslave something in us But let me not be too proud of my safety
