I served an interesting tour of duty in Southeast Asia in 1972 during which time I was in and out of six different countries including Vietnam. A greenhorn lieutenant when I landed, I was eventually promoted to captain. Because of my God-given take charge personality and a few very junior officer notable accomplishments, I found myself frequently being handpicked for special assignments. I saw action with seven different units, some good, some bad, some ugly. I saw men die, I saw capable men withered by fatigue, brave men crippled by fear. Since I served more than forty years ago, now I have had the pleasure and privilege of meeting and getting to know hundreds of fellow Vietnam Vets, short term acquaintances, professional colleagues, neighbors, close friends, family members. Although our individual Vietnam stories are unique and intensely personal, I have come to realize that a common thread runs through most of them. For more than twenty five years, I have been asked to formally speak to sundry civic organizations, history classes, and social gatherings. As a result of fielding thousands of audience questions and listening to their spontaneous reactions to my talks, I have learned what people are interesting in hearing. I have seen their reactions to my version of America's Vietnam experience. I know what's interesting and what's not, what's important to those who weren't there, ordinary people who merely wonder what it was like. I have enjoyed two successful careers and am currently embarked upon my third. I have fired most of life's best bullets, emptied most of my chosen weapons, most precious magazines, drained my fullest canteens, exhausted most of my allotted time on this fair planet we call earth. I want to share a few of the stories of men I served with, men I came to know later in life, men I loved as brothers in arms, surviving in harm's way, or men who were simply Crazy Vietnam Vets like me, with a special story to tell. Men JUST like me, only different. Ours are interesting, up and down, tales of wonder and weird, of good times and bad. I am happily married to a seasoned school nurse, am the father of three college educated sons, and have two fine grandsons. I live in Blanco, Texas, about forty miles due west of Austin. I have always viewed life's glass as half full. Hope you enjoy our Not Ordinary war stories.

Enjoying the Beat of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within The Mom Mom

In a world taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate connection, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony developed by the published word often fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the constant noise and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, located within the pages of The Mom Mom a stunning literary treasure overflowing with fresh feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, this charming masterpiece conducts visitors on an emotional journey, well unraveling the concealed tunes and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths of the emotional evaluation, we shall discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
