The Phototropic Woman:

The Phototropic Woman Annabel Thomas, 1981 The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Debus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene The Winston Reader Bonnie Carter, Craig Skates, 1991 Out of the Girls' Room and into the Night Thisbe Nissen, 1999-09-01 Out of the Girls Room and into the Night is a spirited offbeat collection of stories elongated riffs on that thing we call love All manner of love stories thwarted love stories imaginary love stories love stories offhand and obsessive philosophical love stories erudite and amusing love stories People don't meet because they both like Burmese food says one character or because someone's sister has a friend who's single and new in town or because Billy's nose happened to crook just slightly to the left at an angle that made me want to weep People don't fall in love with each other they just fall into love Everyone does it women of fierce independence men of thin character rambling Deadheads gay teenage girls despondent Peace Corps volunteers anorexic Broadway theatre dancers the eager the grieving the uncommunicative Even the confused do it And they don't just fall in love with each other they fall in love with certain moments and familiar places with things as ephemeral as gestures and as evanescent as sunlight Quirky real idealistic deluded bohemian and true these are people who can and often do fall in love with a pair of ears August afternoons saucers of vitamins New Age carpenters and dead bumblebees And if there's something they can teach us it's how to conceive of alternative worlds and the terror and the exhilaration of venturing outside the confines of the lives we know and making our way into a dark glittering unknown The Literary Review, 1983 An international journal of contemporary writing Here Beneath Low-Flying Planes Merrill Feitell, 2004-10 The stories in Merrill Feitell's award-winning collection Here Beneath Low Flying Planes examine the fleeting and unexpected moments of human connection reminding us of the indelible impact we have on one another no matter how insignificant or anonymous we might feel under our huge collective sky Feitell's characters deal with shifting dynamics in relationships whether they be best friends lovers family or even strangers that consistently leave them torn between two places or commitments In the title story Janie has undergone a painful childbirth experience and her group of friends must pioneer new dynamics while she wonders how to bring her old self back In Bike New York amid thirty thousand cyclists a man on the brink of marriage meets a young girl who in a tiny Brooklyn bakery affirms both who he has been and who he is going to be On this short detour from normal life he comes to understand the funny thing about finding your way in the world

There was a place laid out for you and even as you stepped into it happy for the chance to rest you wondered how you ever ended up there Funny big hearted and deft Here Beneath Low Flying Planes navigates the reader through the life that happens when you re planning other things It is a collection of experiences roads not taken and the intense and unforeseen sparks of connection we hope for
