The Pilgrimage To Mecca:

The Hajj F. E. Peters, 2021-02-09 Among the duties God imposes upon every Muslim capable of doing so is a pilgrimage to the holy places in and around Mecca in Arabia Not only is it a religious ritual filled with blessings for the millions who make the journey annually but it is also a social political and commercial experience that for centuries has set in motion a flood of travelers across the world's continents Whatever its outcome spiritual enrichment cultural exchange financial gain or ruin the road to Mecca has long been an exhilarating human adventure By collecting the firsthand accounts of these travelers and shaping their experiences into a richly detailed narrative F E Peters here provides an unparalleled literary history of the central ritual of Islam from its remote pre Islamic origins to the end of the Hashimite Kingdom of the Hijaz in 1926 The Hadj Michael Wolfe, 2013-11-19 With this impassioned memoir an American convert to Islam lifts the veil on this ancient and sacred duty of making a pilgrimage to Mecca Publishers Weekly The hadj or sacred journey is the pilgrimage to Mecca that all Muslims are enjoined to make once in their lifetimes One of the world's oldest religious rites the hadj has continued without break for fourteen centuries It is like most things Islamic shrouded in mystery for Westerners Here Michael Wolfe an American born writer and recent Muslim convert recounts his experiences on this journey Wolfe begins his narrative in Marrakech Morocco Beginning with the month long fast of Ramadan he immerses himself in the traditional Muslim life of Morocco Then in Tangier he visits mystics and the American author Paul Bowles From there he journeys to Mecca the sacred desert city in Saudi Arabia closed to all but Muslims Though the buildup to the Gulf War hovers in the background the age old rites of the hadj are what most preoccupy Wolfe His experience profoundly strengthens his bond to the faith he has embraced as an outsider making it personal and alive At a time when the eyes of the world are on Islam The Hadj offers a much needed look at its human face Narrating the Pilgrimage to Mecca, 2023-01-16 Narrating the pilgrimage to Mecca discusses a wide variety of historical and contemporary personal accounts of the pilgrimage to Mecca most of which presented in English for the first time The book addresses how being situated in a specific cultural context and moment in history informs the meanings attributed to the pilgrimage experience The various contributions reflect on how in their stories pilgrims draw on multiple cultural discourses and practices that shape their daily lifeworlds to convey the ways in which the pilgrimage to Mecca speaks to their senses and moves them emotionally Together the written memoirs and oral accounts discussed in the book offer unique insights in Islam's rich and evolving tradition of hajj and umra storytelling Contributors are Kholoud Al Ajarma Piotr Bachtin Vladimir Bobrovnikov Marjo Buitelaar Nadia Caidi Simon Coleman Thomas Ecker Zahir Janmohamed Khadija Kadrouch Outmany Ammeke Kateman Yahya Nurgat Jihan Safar Neda Saghaei Leila Seurat Richard van Leeuwen and Miguel Angel Viquez Hajj, 1990 The Hajj Today David E. Long, 1979-06-30 The Quran admonishes Muslims that the pilgrimage to the temple is an obligation due to God from those who are able to journey there Today over one and a half million pilgrims annually fulfill this Fifth Pillar of Islam the Hajj Saudi Arabia conquered the Hijaz in part to protect Hajjis from abuses in the management of the Hajj How does that country now administer the religious event that brings so many people often poor and illiterate into one small area to perform a variety of complex rituals How does the government protect its visitors health and safety and ensure their proper guidance through the necessary rites How does it move so many pilgrims in and out of what is essentially an out of the way desert David Long has set this thoughtful examination of the twentieth century Hajj within its historical framework He first provides a clear concise description of the rituals either necessary or traditional to the proper performance of the Hajj he then relates how the inhabitants of Mecca used to manage the pilgrimage and finally relates how the new Saudi rulers gradually brought the Hajj service industry under government regulation Today there is probably no agency of the Saudi government which is not at least tangentially concerned with the Hajj Only in the area of health did there exist a history of public management By the early nineteenth century it had become all too clear that the Hajj served to carry diseases endemic to the Orient to Europe and by the end of that century health and quarantine procedures were under international control Today the Saudi government has sole control of these matters Oil revenue vastly exceeds Hajj revenues once a major source of Saudi income but the Hajj continues to play an enormous role in the religious social and political life of the country And even in economics it structures the Saudi businessman s year and provides part or full time employment to more Saudi citizens than does the oil industry This volume contains an extensive bibliography appendixes containing statistical material on recent Hajjs maps and a glossary

The Hajj Eric Tagliacozzo,Shawkat M. Toorawa,2016 Scholars from a range of fields tell the story of the Hajj and explain its significance as one of the key events in the Muslim religious calendar This volume pays attention to the diverse aspects of the Hajj as lived every year by hundreds of millions of Muslims worldwide

A Season in Mecca Abdellah Hammoudi,2006-01-10 An unforgettable report on one man s hajj the sacred rite that brings millions of Muslims to Mecca every year In 1999 the Moroccan scholar Abdellah Hammoudi trained in Paris and teaching in America decided to go on the pilgrimage to Mecca He wanted to observe the hajj as an anthropologist but also to experience it as an ordinary pilgrim and to write about it for both Muslims and non Muslims Here is his intimate intense and detailed account of the Hajj a rare and important document by a subtle learned and sympathetic writer Hammoudi describes not just the adventure the human pressures and the social tumult everything from the early preparations to the last climactic scenes in the holy shrines of Medina and Mecca but also the intricate politics and amazing complexity of the entire pilgrimage experience He pays special heed to the effects of Saudi bureaucratic control over the Hajj to the ways that faith itself becomes a lucrative source of commerce for the Arabian kingdom and to the Wahhabi inflections of the basic Muslim message Here too is a poignant discussion of the inner voyage that pilgrimage can mean to those who embark on it the transformed sense of daily life of worship and of political engagement Hammoudi acknowledges that he was spurred to reconsider his own ideas about faith gesture community and nationality in unanticipated ways This is a remarkable work of literature about both the outer forms and the inner meanings of Islam today Pilgrimage to Mecca Lady Evelyn Cobbold, Ahmad S. Turkistani, 2008 As the first British woman convert to Islam on record as having made the pilgrimage to Makkah and the visit to the Prophet's Tomb at Madinah Lady Evelyn Cobbold 1867-1963 cuts a unique figure in the annals of the Muslim Hajj Lady Evelyn was in her mid sixties when she decided to go on the Hajj Daughter of the distinguished Scottish explorer Lord Dunmore granddaughter of the Earl of Leicester and great niece of the notorious romantic Lady Jane Digby el Mezrab the young Evelyn Murray had spent childhood winters in North Africa There she had been imbued with the Muslim way of life becoming as she puts it a little Muslim at heart Before and after the First World War she travelled widely in Egypt Syria and Transjordan While strongly drawn to the Arab world she maintained a conventional place in society at home marrying the wealthy John Cobbold in 1891 and devoting herself to her Suffolk house and Scottish estate her gardens and especially deer stalking in the Highlands of which she was a renowned exponent When her husband by then High Sheriff of Suffolk died in 1929 Lady Evelyn decided to perform the pilgrimage Arriving at Jiddah by steamer from Suez in February 1933 she stayed with the Philbys and entered into the life of Jiddah's foreign community while waiting to obtain permission to perform the Haj In doing so she had to overcome the considerable suspicion surrounding foreign converts who Muslims felt made the pilgrimage and then wrote about it as a dangerous and sensational adventure While in Jiddah she received visits from various officials of the royal court notably the King's son the Amir Faysal later King Faysal PILGRIMAGE TO MECCA is as much an account of an interior journey of faith as a conventional travelogue It takes the form of a day by day journal interspersed with digressions on the history and merits of Islam While awaiting permission to go to Makkah she was allowed to travel to Madinah of which she gives an enchanting account She is the first English writer to give a first hand description of the life of the women's quarters of the households in which she stayed in Madinah Makkah and Muna an account remarkable for its sympathy and vividness Her book was published in 1934 to favourable reviews but has never until now been reprinted This new edition with a biographical introduction by William Facey and Lady Evelyn's great great niece Miranda Taylor serves to rescue this unique and intriguing Anglo-Muslim from the neglect that has since befallen her even among scholars specialising in women travellers The Hajj and Europe in the Age of Empire ,2016-10-05 The present volume focuses on the political perceptions of the Hajj its global religious appeal to Muslims and the European struggle for influence and supremacy in the Muslim world in the age of pre colonial and colonial empires In the late fifteenth century and early sixteenth century a pivotal change in seafaring occurred through which western Europeans played important roles in politics trade and culture Viewing this age of empires through the lens of the Hajj puts it into a different perspective by focusing on how increasing European dominance of the globe in pre colonial and colonial times was entangled with Muslim religious action mobility and agency The study of Europe's connections with the Hajj therefore tests the hypothesis that the concept of agency is not limited to isolated parts of the globe By adopting the tools of empires the Hajj in itself a global activity would become part of

of hajj when he led what became known as the Farewell Hajj in 10 AH 632AD This set the seal on Muhammad s career as the founder of a religion and the leader of a political entity based on that religion The convergence of the Prophet with the politician infuses the hajj with political as well as religious significance For the caliphs who led the Islamic community after Muhammad s death leadership of the hajj became a position of enormous political relevance as it presented them with an unrivalled opportunity to proclaim their pious credentials and reinforce their political legitimacy Exhaustively researched The Meaning of Mecca is the first study to analyse the leadership of the hajj in the formative and medieval periods and to assess the political subtext of Islam s most high profile religious ritual
