Somatic Desire Christine Rojcewicz, Richard Kearney, Sarah Horton, Stephen Mendelsohn, 2019-01-17 The essays in this volume all ask what it means for human beings to be embodied as desiring creatures and perhaps still more piercingly what it means for a philosopher to be embodied In taking up this challenge via phenomenology psychoanalysis hermeneutics and the philosophy of literature the volume questions the orthodoxies not only of Western metaphysics but even of the phenomenological tradition itself We miss much that has philosophical import when we exclude the somatic aspects of human life and it is therefore the philosopher s duty now to rediscover the meaning inherent in desire emotion and passion without letting the biases of any tradition determine in advance the meaning that reveals itself in embodied desire Continental philosophers have already done much to challenge binary oppositions and this volume sets out a new challenge we must now also question the dichotomy between being at home and being alienated Alterity is not simply something out there separate from myself rather it penetrates me through and through even in my corporeal experience My body is both my own and other I am other than myself and therefore other than my body Additionally this book is a conversation not a presentation of a new orthodoxy Thus the hope is that these essays will open the way for further dialogue that will continue to radically rethink our understanding of embodied desire Gathered together here are twelve essays that address these issues from deeply interrelated albeit unique perspectives from within the field A Return to Eros Marc Gafni, Kristina Kincaid, 2017-08-29 Discover the secret relationship between erotic the sexual and the sacred Sex is not negative or positive Sex is not just neutral nor is it merely sacred because it creates babies None of these old sexual stories work for us anymore We need a new sexual narrative This book gives the new sexual narrative what the authors call Sex Erotic Erotic Mystics from the hidden tradition of Solomon s temple taught a secret doctrine sex is the source of all wisdom It s an expression of the erotic impulse of existence itself alive in us the yearning for contact pleasure and aliveness The sexual however is not the sum total of the erotic Rather the sexual teaches us how to live an erotic life in all dimensions of our existence That is Sex Erotic A Return to Eros The Radical Experience of Being Fully Alive from Drs Marc Gafni and Kristina Kincaid reveals the radical tenets of the relationships between the sexual the erotic and the holy They share what Eros actually means and also the 12 core qualities of the erotic which are modeled by the sexual These include being on the inside fullness of presence yearning allurements fantasy surrender creativity pleasure and more A Return to Eros shows why these qualities of the erotic modeled by the sexual are actually the same core qualities of the sacred The relationship between the sexual and the erotic becomes clear teaching you how to live an erotically suffused existence charged with purpose potency and power To be an empowered lover not just in sex but also in all facets of your life you must listen to the whisperings of the sexual Transform your understanding and experience of love sex and Eros inside these pages The Philosophy of (erotic) Love Robert C. Solomon, Kathleen Marie Higgins, 1991 Solomon and Higgins have chosen excerpts from the great philosophical texts and combined them with the most exciting new work of philosophers writing today It examines the mysteries of erotic love from a variety of philosophical perspectives and provides an impressive display of wisdom that the world's best thinkers have brought and continue to bring to the study of love

Approaching Hegel's Logic, Obliquely Angelica Nuzzo, 2018-12-01 An unprecedented reading of Hegel's Logic that sets this difficult work in a dialogue with literary texts In this book Angelica Nuzzo proposes a reading of Hegel's Logic as logic of transformation and logic of action and supports this thesis by looking to works of literature and history as exemplary of Hegel's argument and method By examining Melville's Billy Budd Molière's Tartuffe Beckett's Endgame Elizabeth Bishop's and Giacomo Leopardi's late poetry along with Thucydides' History in this way Nuzzo finds an unprecedented and productive way to render Hegel's Logic alive and engaging She argues that Melville's Billy Budd is the most successful embodiment of the abstract movement of thinking presented in Hegel's Logic connecting Billy Budd's stutter to the puzzlingly inarticulate beginning of Hegel's Logic Being pure Being identical with Nothing and argues that the Logic serves as an especially appropriate tool for understanding the sudden violent action that strikes Claggart dead Through these and other readings Nuzzo finds a fresh way to address interpretive issues that have remained unresolved for almost two centuries in Hegel scholarship and also presents well known works of literature in an entirely new light This account of Hegel's Logic is framed by the need for an interpretive tool able to orient our understanding of the contemporary world as mired in an unprecedented global crisis How can the story of our historical present the tragedy or the comedy we all play parts in be told What is the inner logic of our changing world Angelica Nuzzo presents an original interpretation of Hegel's Logic by representing it as a logic of action This novel approach is supported by insightful readings of the literary texts she covers in the book

Styles,2017-02-22 For several years college freshman Alexandra has wanted nothing more than to get away from the name Alexandra the White Demon Upon moving to a small town in Kansas she discovers that the name White Demon might be far more accurate than she ever could have imagined Orphaned at a young age Alex has always wondered why her parents disappeared all those years ago but the more she finds out about herself and them the more horrified she becomes The Connoisseur ,1911 Beyond the Pleasure Principle Sigmund Freud,1922 In the psycho analytical theory of the mind we take it for granted that the course of mental processes is automatically regulated by the pleasure principle that is to say we believe that any given process originates in an unpleasant state of tension and thereupon determines for itself such a path that its ultimate issue coincides with a relaxation of this tension i e with avoidance of pain or with production of pleasure We know that the pleasure principle is adjusted to a primary mode of operation on the part of the psychic apparatus and that for the preservation of the organism amid the difficulties of the external world it is ab initio useless and indeed extremely dangerous Under the influence of the instinct of the ego for self preservation it is replaced by the reality principle which without giving up the intention of ultimately attaining pleasure yet demands and enforces the postponement of satisfaction the renunciation of manifold possibilities of it and the temporary endurance of pain on the long and circuitous road to pleasure The replacement of the pleasure principle by the reality principle can account only for a small part and that not the most intense of painful experiences Another and no less regular source of pain proceeds from the conflicts and dissociations in the psychic apparatus during the development of the ego towards a more highly co ordinated organisation The two sources of pain here indicated still do not nearly cover the majority of our painful experiences but as to the rest one may say with a fair show of reason that their presence does not impugn the supremacy of the pleasure principle Most of the pain we experience is of a perceptual order perception either of the urge of unsatisfied instincts or of something in the external world which may be painful in itself or may arouse painful anticipations in the psychic apparatus and is recognised by it as danger The reaction to these claims of impulse and these threats of danger a reaction in which the real activity of the psychic apparatus is manifested may be guided correctly by the pleasure principle or by the reality principle which modifies this It seems thus unnecessary to recognise a still more far reaching limitation of the pleasure principle and nevertheless it is precisely the investigation of the psychic reaction to external danger that may supply new material and new
