popularity Wyler's work has never been extensively studied This long overdue book offers a comprehensive assessment of the director his work and his films influence ReFocus: The Films of William Wyler John Price,2023-02-09 In his forty five year career William Wyler not only traversed the silent and the sound eras but also connected classic Hollywood to the new Hollywood The range of his films also spans a wide spectrum of genres from westerns to adaptations of classic literature from crime thrillers to rom coms and from controversial topics to musicals His three Oscars for Best Director are an achievement surpassed only by John Ford His life experience as one of Hollywood's early immigrant artists also speaks to the foreign influence on classic Hollywood Yet despite his awards and commercial success artistic recognition has mostly eluded Wyler This volume of the ReFocus series attempts to analyze this Wyler paradox and also seeks to contextualize and theorize selections from Wyler's canon and his relationship to American cinematic history and American culture This collection has gathered contributions from international authors from extremely diverse backgrounds and therefore differing perspectives on Wyler and his work William Wyler William Wyler,2010 Interviews with the director of Ben Hur Jezebel Mrs Miniver Roman Holiday and Wuthering Heights Runaway Hollywood Daniel Steinhart,2019-02-12 After World War II as cultural and industry changes were reshaping Hollywood movie studios shifted some production activities overseas capitalizing on frozen foreign earnings cheap labor and appealing locations Hollywood unions called the phenomenon runaway production to underscore the outsourcing of employment opportunities Examining this period of transition from the late 1940s to the early 1960s Runaway Hollywood shows how film companies exported production around the world and the effect this conversion had on industry practices and visual style In this fascinating account Daniel Steinhart uses an array of historical materials to trace the industry's creation of a more international production operation that merged filmmaking practices from Hollywood and abroad to produce movies with a greater global scope Working in Hollywood Ronny Regev,2018-09-25 A history of the Hollywood film industry as a modern system of labor this book reveals an important untold story of an influential twentieth century workplace Ronny Regev argues that the Hollywood studio system institutionalized creative labor by systemizing and standardizing the work of actors directors writers and cinematographers meshing artistic sensibilities with the efficiency minded rationale of industrial capitalism The employees of the studios emerged as a new class they were wage laborers with enormous salaries artists subjected to budgets and supervision stars bound by contracts As such these workers people like Clark Gable Katharine Hepburn and Anita Loos were the outliers in the American workforce an extraordinary working class Through extensive use of oral histories personal correspondence studio archives and the papers of leading Hollywood luminaries as well as their less known contemporaries Regev demonstrates that as part of their contribution to popular culture Hollywood studios such as Paramount Warner Bros and MGM cultivated a new form of labor one that made work seem like fantasy Authorship and Aesthetics in the Cinematography of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan,2022-10-03 In this three part book length study of the work of Gregg Toland Philip Cowan explores approaches to co authorship in collaborative filmmaking to propose new ways of identifying attributing and evaluating the creative work of cinematographers In the first part of the study Cowan challenges the dominant director centered auteur approach to film studies critiquing the historical development of authorship theory and providing a contemporary analysis of the cinematographer s authorial role in creating images that communicate meaning through content and construction By synthesizing and updating the work of previous film theorists to define the complexities of composition movement and lighting in the second part of the study Cowan develops a new comprehensive taxonomy of functional and aesthetic elements of the moving image Finally by using the co author approach and the analytical tools developed in part two of the book Cowan provides an in depth re examination of Toland s work highlighting the historical neglect of the cinematographer s artistic contribution to filmmaking and developing a fresh approach to the analysis of contemporary cinematography in film

Making The Best Years of Our Lives Alison Macor, 2022-06-07 2023 Wall Award Finalist Theatre Library Association How a Hollywood gem transformed the national discourse on post traumatic stress disorder Released in 1946 The Best Years of Our Lives became an immediate success Life magazine called it the first big good movie of the post war era to tackle the veterans problem Today we call that problem PTSD but in the initial aftermath of World War II the modern language of war trauma did not exist The film earned the producer Samuel Goldwyn his only Best Picture Academy Award It offered the injured director William Wyler a triumphant postwar return to Hollywood And for Harold Russell a double amputee who costarred with Fredric March and Dana Andrews the film provided a surprising second act Award winning author Alison Macor illuminates the film s journey from script to screen and describes how this authentic motion picture moved audiences worldwide General Omar Bradley believed The Best Years of Our Lives would help the American people to build an even better democracy following the war and the movie inspired broad reflection on reintegrating the walking wounded But the film s nuanced critique of American ideals also made it a target and the picture and its creators were swept up in the anti Communist witch hunts of the late 1940s In this authoritative history Macor chronicles the making and meaning of a film that changed America

A Wonderful Heart Neil Sinyard, 2013-09-06 Revered by his cinematic peers William Wyler 1902 1981 was one of the most honored and successful directors of Hollywood s Golden Age with such classics as Dead End Wuthering Heights The Little Foxes Roman Holiday and Ben Hur He won three directing Oscars and elicited over a dozen Oscar winning performances from his actors Such exacting performers as Bette Davis Laurence Olivier and Charlton Heston counted him the best director they had worked with Yet during the era of the auteur theory his films fell out of fashion lacking it was said a distinctive stylistic and thematic signature This new critical study of Wyler s work the first in more than thirty years challenges the notion of Wyler s impersonality and offers a comprehensive reappraisal of his work particularly of the underrated postwar films It also provides a rebuttal of the auteurist criticism whose rigid categorization of directors cannot adequately encompass the range of someone like Wyler who put substance above style and had a breadth of human understanding that was not reducible to a cluster of characteristic themes Supported by archival research in Los Angeles the book traces the important milestones in Wyler s career the context of his films the importance of legendary producer Sam Goldwyn his distinguished war record and his principled opposition to blacklisting during the McCarthy era Starmaker Milan Hain,2023-08-07 David O Selznick 1902 1965 was one of the most prominent film producers of the Hollywood studio era responsible for such artistic and commercial triumphs as King Kong David Copperfield Anna Karenina A Star Is Born Gone with the Wind Rebecca Spellbound and The Third Man However film production was not his only domain Starting in the late 1930s he built an impressive stable of stars within his own independent company including Ingrid Bergman Vivien Leigh Joan Fontaine Jennifer Jones and Gregory Peck In Starmaker David O Selznick and the Production of Stars in the Hollywood Studio System author Milan Hain reveals the mechanisms by which Selznick and his collaborators discovered and promoted new stars and describes how these personalities were marketed whether for financial gain or symbolic recognition and prestige Using a wide range of archival materials the book significantly complements and reshapes our understanding of Selznick s celebrated career by focusing on heretofore neglected aspects of his creative and business activities It also sheds light on the US film industry during the Golden Age of Hollywood studios and in the postwar period when the established order began to break down By structuring the book around Selznick and his role as a starmaker Hain demonstrates that star production and development in the Hollywood studio system was a highly organized and systematic activity though the respective strategies and procedures were often hidden from the public eye Supreme Court of the State of New York Appellate Division First Department , Cinematic Cold War Tony Shaw,Denise Jeanne Youngblood,2010 The first book length survey of cinema s vital role in the Cold War cultural combat between the U S and the USSR Focuses on 10 films five American and five Soviet both iconic and lesser known works showing that cinema provided a crucial outlet for the global debate between democratic and communist ideologies William Wyler William Wyler,1977 The Canadian Patent Office Record and Register of Copyrights and Trade Marks ,1929 American Cinematographer ,1928 Motion Picture Herald ,1927 Time Briton Hadden,Henry Robinson Luce,1923 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
