How We Age Marc E. Aronin, 2011-02-01 In the tradition of Atul Gawande and Sherwin Nuland Marc Aronin writes luminously and unforgettably of life as he sees it as a doctor His beat is a nursing home in Miami that some would dismiss as God's waiting room Nothing in the young doctor's medical training had quite prepared him for what he was to discover there As Aronin first learned from ninety eight year old Esther and later from countless others the true scales of aging aren't one sided you can't list the problems without also tallying the hopes and promises Drawing on moving personal experiences and in depth interviews with pioneers in the field Aronin conjures a spellbinding look at what aging means today how our bodies and brains age and the very way we understand aging
