Stimmen Im Kanon:

The Canon and Beyond Tobias Nicklas ,2024-10-28 How did the canon of the New Testament come into being To what extent can we also speak of a history of the already existing canon What functions were and are assigned to it in different historical contexts What is the relationship between canonical writings and extra canonical writings What is the relationship between Christian apocrypha and the texts of the Bible from the Old and New Testaments The number of questions surrounding the canon of New Testament writings and the lasting significance of apocryphal writings and traditions in relation to the canon is almost inexhaustible This volume brings together contributions by Tobias Nicklas on these topics from the past twenty years A particular focus is on the reassessment of Christian apocrypha and their relationship to image and rite and on understanding of canon as a dynamic entity

Die Einheit der Schrift und die Vielfalt des Kanons / The Unity of Scripture and the Diversity of the Canon John Barton,Michael Wolter,2012-10-24 The volume presents the results of a joint research project run by the Universities of Bonn and Oxford

Intercultural Theology Judith Gruber,2017-12-04 Recent years have seen a paradigm shift in Christian self understanding In place of the eurocentric model of Christendom a new understanding is emerging of Christianity as a world movement with considerable cultural variety Concomitant with this changing self perception a new theological discipline begins to take shape which analyzes the inter and transcultural character and performance of global Christianity Intercultural Theology Judith Gruber discusses this nascent theological approach in two parts She first gives a critical analysis of its historical development in the first part of the book two theological sub disciplines of particular relevance are analysed 1 missiology and its reflection on the encounter of Western Christianity with other cultures in the context of colonialism 2 contextual theologies which focus on the particularity and dignity of the diverse cultural contexts of theological practice but fail to sufficiently integrate the universal dimension of Christianity into their theological reflections Secondly this study offers a constructive theological approach to intercultural theology It does that by bringing systematic theology into conversation with cultural studies This interdisciplinary approach adds significant complexity to existing reflections on Intercultural Theology Re reading the theological history of Christianity within the critical framework of cultural theories exposes a host of disparate and conflictive Christianities underneath its dominant master narrative and moreover it no longer allows a recourse to essentialist concepts of Christian identity with which previous approaches to Intercultural Theology have mitigated this unsettling cultural plurality of Christianity After the Cultural Turn which has made a metaphysical epistemology untenable new ways for thinking the unity and universality of Christianity have to be paved The book draws on Paul Ricoeur s and Michel Foucault s concept of the event and on Michel deCerteau s proposal of a Weak Christianity in order to develop such a post metaphysical framework which allows to conceive of the unity and universality of Christianity without concealing its cultural plurality and contingency
