Stories Of J F Powers:

The Stories of J.F. Powers J.F. Powers, 2012-11-21 Hailed by Frank O Connor as one of the greatest living storytellers J F Powers who died in 1999 stands with Eudora Welty Flannery O Connor and Raymond Carver among the authors who have given the short story an unmistakably American cast In three slim collections of perfectly crafted stories published over a period of some thirty years and brought together here in a single volume for the first time Powers wrote about many things baseball and jazz race riots and lynchings the Great Depression and the flight to the suburbs His greatest subject however and one that was uniquely his was the life of priests in Chicago and the Midwest Powers s thoroughly human priests who include do gooders gladhandlers wheeler dealers petty tyrants and even the odd saint struggle to keep up with the Joneses in a country unabashedly devoted to consumption These beautifully written deeply sympathetic and very funny stories are an unforgettable record of the precarious balancing act that is American life Suitable Accommodations J. F.

Powers, 2013-08-20 A wry moving collection of letters from the late J F Powers a comic writer of genius Mary Gordon Best known for his 1963 National Book Award winning novel Morte D Urban and as a master of the short story J F Powers drew praise from Evelyn Waugh Flannery O Connor Saul Bellow and Philip Roth among others Though Powers s fiction dwelt chiefly on the lives of Catholic priests he long planned to write a novel of family life a feat he never accomplished He did however write thousands of letters which selected here by his daughter Katherine A Powers become an intimate version of that novel dynamic with plot and character They show a dedicated artist passionate lover reluctant family man pained aesthete sports fan and appreciative friend At times wrenching and sad at others ironic and exuberantly funny Suitable Accommodations is the story of a man at odds with the world and despite his faith with his church Beginning in prison where Powers spent more than a year as a conscientious objector the letters move on to his courtship marriage comically unsuccessful attempt to live in the woods life in the Midwest and in Ireland an unorthodox view of the Catholic Church and an increasingly bizarre search for suitable accommodations which included three full scale emigrations to Ireland Here too are encounters with such diverse people as Thomas Merton Eugene McCarthy Robert Lowell Theodore Roethke Sean O Faolain Frank O Connor Dorothy Day and Alfred Kinsey An NPR Best Book of 2013 Morte D'Urban J.F.

Powers, 2000-05-31 Winner of The 1963 National Book Award for Fiction The hero of J F Powers s comic masterpiece is Father Urban a man of the cloth who is also a man of the world Charming with an expansive vision of the spiritual life and a high tolerance for moral ambiguity Urban enjoys a national reputation as a speaker on the religious circuit and has big plans for the future But then the provincial head of his dowdy religious order banishes him to a retreat house in the Minnesota hinterlands Father Urban soon bounces back carrying God s word with undaunted enthusiasm through the golf courses fishing lodges and backyard barbecues of his new turf Yet even as he triumphs his tribulations mount and in the end his greatest success proves a setback from which he cannot recover First published in 1962 Morte D Urban has been praised by writers as various as Gore Vidal William Gass Mary Gordon and Philip Roth This beautifully observed often hilarious tale of a most unlikely Knight of Faith is among the finest achievements of an author whose singular vision assures him a permanent place in American literature

Iza's Ballad Magda Szabo,2016-10-18 From the author of The Door selected by The New York Times Book Review as one of the ten best books of 2015 An NYRB Classics Original Like Magda Szabo's internationally acclaimed novel The Door Iza's Ballad is a striking story of the relationship between two women in this case a mother and a daughter Ettie the mother is old and from an older world than the rapidly modernizing Communist Hungary of the years after World War II From a poor family and without formal education Ettie has devoted her life to the cause of her husband Vince a courageous magistrate who had been blacklisted for political reasons before the war Iza their daughter is as brave and conscientious as her father Active in the resistance against the Nazis she is now a doctor and a force for progress Iza lives and works in Budapest and when Vince dies she is quick to bring Ettie to the city to make sure her mother is close and can be cared for She means to do everything right and Ettie is eager to do everything to the satisfaction of the daughter she is so proud of But good intentions aside mother and daughter come from two different worlds and have different ideas of what it means to lead a good life Though they struggle to accommodate each other increasingly they misunderstand and hurt each other and the distance between them widens into an abyss

Wheat That Springeth Green J.F. Powers,2012-11-21 Wheat That Springeth Green J F Powers's beautifully realized final work is a comic foray into the commercialized wilderness of modern American life Its hero Joe Hackett is a high school track star who sets out to be a saint But seminary life and priestly apprenticeship soon damp his ardor and by the time he has been given a parish of his own he has traded in his hair shirt for the consolations of baseball and beer Meanwhile Joe's higher ups are pressing for an increase in profits from the collection plate suburban Inglenook's biggest business wants to launch its new line of missiles with a blessing and not all that far away in Vietnam a war is going on Joe wants to duck and cover but in the end almost in spite of himself he is condemned to do something right J F Powers was a virtuoso of the American language with a perfect ear for the telling cliché and an unfailing eye for the kitsch that clutters up our lives This funny and very moving novel about the making and remaking of a priest is one of his finest achievements

Prince of Darkness & Other Stories James Farl Powers,1979-01-01 The Black Spider Jeremias Gotthelf,2013-10-08 An NYRB Classics Original It is a sunny summer Sunday in a remote Swiss village and a christening is being celebrated at a lovely old farmhouse One of the guests notes an anomaly in the fabric of the venerable edifice a blackened post that has been carefully built into a trim new window frame Thereby hangs a tale one that as the wise old grandfather who has lived all his life in the house proceeds to tell it takes one chilling turn after another while his audience listens in appalled silence Featuring a cruelly overbearing lord of the manor and the oppressed villagers who must render him service an irreverent young woman who will stop at nothing a mysterious stranger with a red beard and a green hat and last but not least the black spider the tale is as riveting and appalling today as when Jeremias Gotthelf set it down more than a hundred years ago The Black Spider can be seen as a parable of evil in the heart or of evil at large in society Thomas Mann saw it as foretelling the advent of Nazism or as a vision anticipating H P Lovecraft of cosmic horror There s no question in any case that it is unforgettably creepy

Talk Linda Rosenkrantz,2015-07-07 Talk is a hilariously irreverent and racy testament to dialogue the gossip questioning analysis arguments and revelations that make up our closest friendships It s the summer of 1965 and Emily Vincent and Marsha are at the beach All three are ambitious and artistic all are hovering around thirty and all are deeply and mercilessly invested in analyzing themselves and everyone around them The friends discuss sex shrinks psychedelics sculpture and S and M in an ongoing dialogue where anything goes and no topic is off limits Talk is the result of these conversations recorded by Linda Rosenkrantz and transformed into a novel whose form and content put it well ahead of its time Controversial upon its first publication in 1968 Talk remains fresh lascivious and laugh out loud funny nearly fifty years later

Ending Up Kingsley Amis,2015-04-28 A group of disgruntled septuagenarians prepare for their final days in this dark and very funny English novel about death and the inevitability of growing old The Observer Everyone wants a comfortable place to die and Kingsley Amis s characters have found it in Tuppenny happeny Cottage where assorted septuagenarians have come together to see one another out the door of life There s grotesque Adela whose sole passion is her cheapness her brother Brigadier Bernard Bastable always strategizing a new retreat to the bathroom before sallying forth to play some especially nasty practical joke Shorty the servant who years ago had a fling with the brigadier in the barracks and now organizes his day around a trail of hidden bottles George Zeyer the distinguished professor of history bedridden and helpless to articulate his still coherent thoughts and Marigold who slowly but surely is forgetting it all And now it is Christmas Children and grandchildren are coming to visit their ailing elders They don t know what lies in store before the story ends None of us do Ending Up is a grimly hilarious dance of death full of bickering bitching backstabbing drinking of course and idiocy of all sorts It is a book about dying people and about a dying England clinging to its memories of greatness as it succumbs to terminal decay

On Being Blue William H. Gass,2014-03-11 On Being Blue is a book about everything blue sex and sleaze and sadness among other things and about everything else It brings us the world in a word as only William H Gass among contemporary American writers can do Gass writes Of the colors blue and green have the greatest emotional range Sad reds and melancholy yellows are difficult to turn up Among the ancient elements blue occurs everywhere in ice and water in the flame as purely as in the flower overhead and inside caves covering fruit and oozing out of clay Although green enlivens the earth and mixes in the ocean and we find it copperish in fire green air green skies are rare Gray and brown are widely distributed but there are no joyful swatches of either or any of exuberant black sullen pink or acquiescent orange Blue is therefore most suitable as the color of interior life Whether slick light sharp high bright thin quick sour new and cool or low deep sweet dark soft slow smooth heavy old and warm blue moves easily among them all and all profoundly qualify our states of feeling master metaphor for modernity which some great irresistible force be it Fascism or Communism or capitalism is always busy rebuilding and Houses is a book about a man Ars nie Negovan who has devoted his life and his dreams to building Bon vivant Francophile visionary Negovan spent the first half of his life building houses he loved and even named Juliana Christina Agatha while making his hometown of Belgrade into a modern city to be proud of The second half of his life after World War II and the Nazi occupation he has spent in one of those houses looked after by his wife and a nurse in hiding Houses is set on the final day of his life when Negovan at last ventures forth to see the world as it is Negovan is one of the great characters in modern fiction a man of substance and a deluded fantasist a beguiling visionary and a monster of selfishness a charmer no matter what And perhaps he is right to fear that home is only an illusion in our world or that only in illusion is there home

Confusion Stefan Zweig, 2012-07-25 An NYRB Classics Original Stefan Zweig was particularly drawn to the novella and Confusion a rigorous and yet transporting dramatization of the conflict between the heart and the mind is among his supreme achievements in the form A young man who is rapidly going to the dogs in Berlin is packed off by his father to a university in a sleepy provincial town There a brilliant lecture awakens in him a wild passion for learning as well as a peculiarly intense fascination with the graying professor who gave the talk The student grows close to the professor becoming a regular visitor to the apartment he shares with his much younger wife He takes it upon himself to urge his teacher to finish the great work of scholarship that he has been laboring at for years and even offers to help him in any way he can The professor welcomes the young man's attentions at least on some days On others he rages without apparent reason or turns away from his disciple with cold scorn The young man is baffled wounded He cannot understand But the wife understands She understands perfectly And one way or another she will help him to understand too Fifty Years of the American Short Story William Miller Abrahams, 1970 The Presence of Grace James Farl Powers, 1956 Darkly comic gently compassionate examinations of 1950s Middle America Catholic style As the village of Sherwood where some stories take place in a vaguely pinpointed but accurately mapped terrain becomes swallowed up into Minneapolis suburbia as the Church begins to find its parishioners assimilating beyond the reach of vestibule religious tracts into the Welcome Wagon invitations of the middle class tract Powers shifts accordingly This follow up to The Prince of Darkness and Other Stories presents nine investigations of Catholic life Most are clerical and those that feature the laity tend to wear the trappings of their faith less obviously as fits the subject matter But each one peers into the dilemmas of compromise how one must balance what's rendered to God with what's given to Caesar John L Murphy at Amazon.com The American Benedictine Review, 1979 Irish-American Fiction Daniel J.
