Strange Skies Matt Marinovich, 2009-10-13 What kind of man would lie to his own wife about having cancer A man desperate to avoid being saddled with life s responsibilities A man like Paul On a miserable October afternoon as he stares down at his brother s whiny new baby Paul realizes he s run out of excuses His wife wants a family but the last thing Paul wants is dirty diapers and a constantly screaming stranger robbing him of sleep Then a lump is discovered on his arm and with a little elaboration the parenthood question is rendered moot With the dwindling time he pretends he s got left he intends to start looking out for number one But his cancer vacation hits a snag when he meets a mother and son in an airport bar who turn everything around and even bring Paul to the brink of a life he thought he never wanted because sometimes a man s got to lose himself completely to discover who he really is
