Head, 2015-09-18 The poems in this collection deal with the real life worlds of professors instructors lecturers teachers and others working in education This volume covers contemporary teaching experiences in education including the many roles that teachers play such as instructing lecturing mentoring facilitating coaching guiding and leading This volume covers the manifold life experiences and perspectives of being and working as a teacher in education and the epiphanies experienced in that role This volume gives creative voice to the full range of experiences by teachers students and others and empowers readers with inspiration and personal agency as they evolve as self creating self determining authors of their own lives both personally and professionally The poems in this volume are largely based on teachers meaningful experiences in and out of the classroom and will provide artistic inspiration and creative insight to others who currently work as teachers or those students who are preparing to be professors instructors and teachers or those students who simply enjoy the creative voice of others New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essay will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women s Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and
