The Making of a Prophet Rev. Pamela Sheppard LMSW,2005-06 Called to contend for the faith with this bold and truthful autobiographical expos the author poignantly confronts the sin hypocrisy and false doctrine that permeates the organized denominational church and the word of faith Charismatic movement So many Christians are now suffering from what is known as spiritual abuse the Lord s people damaged by and in the organized church This particular word stands as a spiritual indictment of those who are leaders in the organized church yet they are actually working for the devil some deceived others deluded and others outright deceitful workers The names in this book have been changed primarily because the adversaries revealed are really not the true enemies of Jesus Christ In this regard this testimony uncovers that it is the spirit of the Anti Christ the religious demon within the organized church who is the true enemy The spirit of the Anti Christ has found a seat throughout the organized church In this work you will be astounded at how the enemy is using people who call themselves Christians to fight to keep the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ from healing spiritual blindness and from translating souls out of darkness This book will be a prophetic eye opener to those of you who have wondered why the denominational church is either diseased dying or dead and the Charismatic church is both deluded deceived yet continuing to draw thousands Some may become offended at the down to earth at times explicit style of this work and assume that the author has included certain details for the sake of slander or in a spirit of retaliation However you will soon discover that the author is as hard on herself as she is on those whose true names she actually protects sharing her own sins shortcomings and failures in her personal struggle to walk in righteousness and in holiness You will also find that the author does not seek self vindication but rather offers the private details of her life as a work of redemptive love for the lost the bound and the broken The author's love for the true church is not to render evil for the evil that was done to her On the contrary The author skillfully uses both the good and evil of her own spiritual journey in Christ Jesus as a call to the organized church for reformation through repentance

Joseph Smith Dan Vogel, 2004-04-15 Rarely does a biographer capture the sense of being in a different time and mindset to the extent that readers feel they are reliving events through the eyes of the biographer's subject This is the skill of Dan Vogel after twenty five years of researching Joseph Smith's life and publishing on such related issues as Seekerism the Book of Mormon views of Smith's contemporaries about Indian origins and the existing documents pertaining to Smith family experiences Vogel weaves together strands of evidence into a complete fabric including among other aspects of Smith's environment the content of his daily dictation of scripture and revelation all contributing to a nearly complete view of what occurred on any given day in Smith's life The result is as much intellectual history as traditional biography Readers will feel engaged in the dramatic formative events in the prophet's life against a backdrop of theology local and national politics Smith family dynamics organizational issues and interpersonal relations One can form a mental picture and many will find themselves carrying on an internal dialogue about the issues raised Vogel addresses the following broad themes 1 The home that Joseph Smith was raised in was religiously divided His mother's family was orthodox and partly mystical his father's family tended toward rationalism and skepticism Joseph's maternal grandfather published an account of seeing a heavenly light and hearing Jesus voice Joseph's paternal grandfather promoted Thomas Paine's skeptical critique of the Bible The Age of Reason 2 When Andrew Jackson was elected U S president in 1828 it was a key transitional period in American history Jackson was a Mason and an advocate of secularism which alarmed evangelical Protestants 3 The Smith family experienced a series of financial setbacks and lost their farm in 1825 Joseph felt disinherited and saw no way of escape no chance for his family to regain its former standing in the community 4 Joseph found solace in religion In the early 1820s he had a powerful conversion experience and felt that Jesus had forgiven him of his sins This inspired him to share the gospel message with others particularly with his own family About the same time Smith found a talent for preaching and delivered passable Methodist sermons at a nearby revival 5 Over time Joseph became aware that people trusted him and that he could be an influence for good or ill that even through nefarious means God worked through him when his heart was right He realized this when he led groups in search of Spanish treasure in New York and Pennsylvania Although no treasure was found the men sincerely believed that Smith had a spiritual gift and could see where casks of gold were hidden in the earth This training ground in spiritual leadership was invaluable because the prophet learned how to create an environment for belief one in which people could exercise faith and be converted to Christ through the sensible influence of the Spirit all prior to the overarching work of restoring primitive Christianity
