The Miracle Years:

Nature of the Miracle Years Sandra Chaney, 2008 After 1945 those responsible for conservation in Germany resumed their work with a relatively high degree of continuity as far as laws and personnel were concerned Yet conservationists soon found they had little choice but to modernize their views and practices in the challenging postwar context Forced to change by necessity those involved in state sponsored conservation institutionalized and professionalized their efforts while several private groups became more confrontational in their message and tactics Through their steady and often conservative presence within the mainstream of West German society conservationists ensured that by 1970 the map of the country was dotted with hundreds of reserves dozens of nature parks and one national park In doing so they assured themselves a strong position to participate in rather than be excluded from the left leaning environmental movement of the 1970s Power and the People Eleonore C. M. Breuning, Dr. Jill Lewis, Gareth Pritchard, 2005 This book covers various aspects of the social history of politics on both sides of the Iron Curtain in the period 1945 to 1956 The contributors come from a range of countries Austria Germany Hungary Slovakia and the United Kingdom and comprise a mixture of established historians and younger scholars engaged in pioneering research The individual chapters are organised into four sections dealing with workers ethnic and linguistic minorities youth and women In order to enhance the comparative character of the volume the four chapters contained in each section consider the position of these social groups in respectively West Germany East Germany Austria and either Czechoslovakia or Hungary Major themes include the absence of popular revolutions in the aftermath of World War Two the re imposition of social control by post war elites the attempt to restore pre war gender relations and the failure of Communist parties to win popular support The chosen time frame saw most of the decisive developments which set the pattern for the remaining Cold War period and is therefore of key importance for any student of this topic The Miracle Years Hanna Schissler, 2001 Exploring postwar German history literature and film this text examines the lives of real people to learn how they experienced and represented the institutions and social forces that shaped their lives and defined the wider culture Year 501 Noam Chomsky, 1993 Noam Chomsky's Year 501 is a powerful and comprehensive discussion of the incredible injustices hidden in our history and there is little in that history that escapes Chomsky's attention Threatened Masculinity from British Fiction to Cold War German Cinema Joseph Willis, 2019-05-30 The impact of the Cold War on German male identities can be seen in the nation's cinematic search for a masculine paradigm that rejected the fate centered value system of its National Socialist past while also recognizing that German males once again had become victims of fate and fatalism but now within the value system of the Soviet and American hegemonies that determined the fate of Cold War Germany and Central Europe This monograph is the first to demonstrate that this Cold War cinematic search sought out a meaningful masculine paradigm through film adaptations of late Victorian and Edwardian male writers who likewise sought a means of self determination within a hegemonic structure that often left few opportunities for personal agency In contrast to the scholarly practice of exploring categories of modern masculinity such as Victorian imperialist manliness or German Cold War male identity as distinct from each other this monograph offers an important comparative corrective that brings forward an extremely influential century long trajectory of threatened masculinity For German Cold War masculinity lessons were to be learned from history namely from late Victorian and Edwardian models of manliness Cold War Germans like the Victorians before them had to confront the unknowns of a new world without fear or hesitation In a Cold War mentality where nuclear technology and geographic distance had trumped face to face confrontation between East and West Cold War German masculinity sought alternatives to the insanity of mutual nuclear destruction by choosing not just to confront threats but to resolve threats directly through personal agency and self determination

French Intellectuals Against the Left Michael Scott Christofferson,2004 Christofferson argues that French anti totalitarianism was the culmination of direct democratic critiques of communism revisions of the revolutionary project after 1956 He offers an alternative interpretation for the denunciation of communism Marxism by the French intellectual left in the late 1970s

Colonial Discourse and the Jesus-fication of King Chaka Daniel M. Mengara,2024-09-05 Although Chaka is considered an African literary masterpiece Thomas Mofolo has paradoxically been dismissed by critics as an author naively extolling the virtues of the white man s civilizing mission in Africa Daniel M Mengara s Colonial Discourse and the Jesus fication of King Chaka How Thomas Mofolo s Chaka Turned the Zulu Monarch into a Messiah offers a rereading of Chaka to show that Mofolo in fact astutely deconstructs and then reconstructs Zulu king Chaka into a messianic figure whose life trajectory and destiny blasphemously mirror those of Jesus Christ This volume avoids the pitfalls of the traditional mission interpretations of Chaka and provides an interpretative inflection that paints a more nuanced and balanced picture and understanding of Thomas Mofolo s fictional account of the mythologized historical figure Mengara delves into the circumstances and controversies surrounding the publication of the novel and shows how Mofolo Jesus fied King Chaka in a sly yet sacrilegious ploy to subvert the colonial discourse and missionary ethos of his time This book stands as a reassessment of Thomas Mofolo s often ignored nationalism and calls for a rediscovery of Mofolo s work in ways that resituate him within the history of the African novel as the undisputed pioneer of engaged African literature
