The Museum of Unconditional Surrender D. Ugresic, 1999-12-01 Media Borders, Multimodality and Intermediality L. Elleström, 2010-02-12 A groundbreaking collection of essays looking at the concepts of intermediality and multimodality the relationship between various forms of art and new media and including case studies ranging from music film and architecture to medieval ballads biopoetry and Lettrism Writing Postcommunism D. Williams, 2013-08-16 Moving through the elegiac ruins of the Berlin Wall and the Yugoslav disintegration Writing Postcommunism explores literary evocations of the pervasive disappointment and mourning that have marked the postcommunist twilight Europe Old and New Ray Taras, 2008-07-31 Is Europe indeed uniting or instead falling apart as a result of anti immigrant prejudices a massive Islamic influx and ancient intra European hatreds This innovative and engaging book explores this key question by examining the national and religious phobias and prejudices antipathies and sympathies stereotypes and heterotypes of Europe west and east Considering the sources of Europe s culture based divide Ray Taras argues that the idea of two Europes is grounded both in reality and myth The accession process that brought a dozen new members into the European Union after 2004 highlighted the persisting gulf between old and new Europe While many concrete borders between east and west were removed commercial legal passport regimes many remained absence of a single Euro currency zone labor market and security community Virtual borders too were invented or re imagined the postmaterialist inclusionary tolerant values supposedly found in old Europe versus the materialist nationalistic xenophobic ones of new Europe After reviewing the two Europes contrasting historical legacies Taras examines the EU institutions designed to overcome the historical European divide He considers the treaties political rhetoric citizen attitudes and literary narratives of belonging and separation that both bind and fray the fabric of Europe Throughout this interdisciplinary work provides a comprehensive hard hitting and unabashed review of how enlarged Europe embraces contrasting understandings of its political home and of who belongs and who does not

The Nation , 1921 Mythistory and Narratives of the Nation in the Balkans Tatjana Aleksić, 2007 The idea of this collection is to bring to the forefront various ways in which the literary poetics of Balkan nations interrelates with their national poetics and present recent and innovative explorations of literature and film which actively engage with national poetics a kind of mythopoiesis of the modern Balkans In proposing an approach to the national question that lies distinctly in the liminal space best designated as mythistory the collection brings together two dominant approaches to national discourse The first tends to interpret the nation as a myth an artificial creation an invention even a oedream The other is a mapping of the nation that considers its historically progressive role It is their multifaceted dynamics that brings to the foreground a unique national mythopoetics Mythistory is explored through its multifold engagement with the text as a major element in the universal nationalist discourse as a narrative strategy extensively utilized in Balkan literary and film narratives and as a particular technique in approaching the text Through the insights gained from literary and critical theory historical analysis and cultural anthropology this collection seeks to reveal the application of mythistorical discourse upon narratives responding to nation forming historical events The texts in this collection articulate very distinct agendas of gender identity culture philosophy and aesthetics all interwoven with national problematic but steer away from the definition by which mythistory is relegated to the transparently propagandist Brücke, 2005 Translation Review, 1998 The Cultural Debate Antonín J.
