Trauma Fiction:

Trauma Fiction Anne Whitehead, 2004-05-27 No detailed description available for Trauma Fiction Literary Aesthetics of Trauma Reina Van der Wiel, 2014-04-08 Literary Aesthetics of Trauma Virginia Woolf and Jeanette Winterson investigates a fundamental shift from the 1920s to the present day in the way that trauma is aesthetically expressed Modernism's emphasis on impersonality and narrative abstraction has been replaced by the contemporary trauma memoir and an ethical imperative to bear witness Reading Testimony, Witnessing Trauma Eden Wales, 2020-02-28 Winner of the 2020 Eudora Welty Prize Theorists emphasize the necessity of writing about or witnessing trauma in order to overcome it To this critical conversation Reading Testimony Witnessing Trauma Confronting Race Gender and Violence in American Literature treats reader response to traumatic and testimonial literature written by and about African American women and adds insight into the engagement of testimonial literature Eden Wales articulates a theory of reading or dual witnessing that explores how narrators and readers can witness trauma together She places these original theories of traumatic reception in conversation with the African American literary tradition to speak to the histories cultures and traumas of African Americans particularly the repercussions of slavery as witnessed in African American literature The volume also considers intersections of race and gender and how narrators and readers can cross such constructs to witness collectively Reading Testimony Witnessing Trauma's innovative examinations of raced gendered intersections open and speak with those works that promote dual witnessing through the fraught literary histories of race and gender relations in America To explicate how dual witnessing converses with American literature race theory and gender criticism the book analyzes emancipatory narratives by Sojourner Truth Harriet Jacobs and Elizabeth Keckley and novels by William Faulkner Zora Neale Hurston Margaret Walker Toni Morrison and Jesmyn Ward De Facto Trauma Reconsidered Faten Haouioui, 2021-05-20 This collection of essays revises contemporary trauma theory from Freudian Caruthian and post structuralist perspectives While Western trauma theory is often theorized according to post traumatic stress disorder PTSD this volume discusses different forms of trauma that target decolonisation theories in Arab Maghrebean and Afro American contexts and Chinese narratives on courtesans The contributors to this book also scrutinize the artistic representation of trauma in poetry and drama adopting a cross cultural approach to trauma theory Traumatic Imprints: Performance, Art, Literature and Theoretical Practice, 2020-09-25 This ebook presents conference proceedings from the 1st Global Conference Trauma theory and practice held in Prague Czech Republic in March 2011 The Trauma Novel Ronald Granofsky, 1995 This study attempts to make sense of a group of novels that deal in a symbolic way with contemporary forms of collective disaster the prospect of nuclear war the Holocaust environmental destruction It shows similarities among British American Canadian and other novels never before grouped together and argues that they constitute a distinct sub genre of fiction the trauma novel In so doing the book sets forth an original theory about how literary symbolism functions as part of a cultural response to collective trauma Suffering in Anglophone Literatures Charles I. Armstrong, Martina Domines, 2024-10-15 This book engages with postclassical Trauma Studies in order to widen the scope of discussion about trauma to concepts such as toleration mourning nostalgia vulnerability and existential Angst The authors question literature's manifold relationship to trauma is undertaken in a conscientious dialogue with ethics and politics Trauma Patrick McGrath, 2009-04-07 Charlie Weir is a man who tackles other people's demons for a living He has seen every kind of trauma during his years as a psychiatrist in New York Yet he hasn't found a way of resolving his own conflicts particularly the fatal mistake that caused his wife and daughter to leave him condemning him to corrosive loneliness and restless anger Years later he meets a beautiful but damaged woman who promises to restore his dwindling faith in both his profession and himself But as he realizes that she has become more of a patient than a lover events conspire to send him reeling toward the abyss Addictive and enthralling Trauma is Patrick McGrath's most riveting work to date The Trauma of Migration in the Novel "Exit West" by Mohsin Hamid Katharina Spreier, 2022-02-14 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.7 University of Cologne language English abstract This paper will examine how the trauma of refugees and essentially the trauma of migration is depicted in Mohsin Hamid's 2017 novel Exit West After laying the theoretical foundation of explaining the area of literary trauma theory the role of migration in trauma studies as well as the notion of the Double Absence the following analysis will examine the ways in which Hamid portrays the trauma of refugees in his novel and to what extent these ways line up with literary trauma theory Trauma Narration in Patricia McCormick's Novel "Sold". The Impact of Human Trafficking Lisa Thöne, 2024-05-31 Seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.0 University of Paderborn Institut für Anglistik und Amerikanistik course American Trauma Narratives language English abstract This paper analyzes Patricia McCormick's novel Sold to explore how it captures the experiences of trauma resulting from human trafficking The paper examines the novel's narrative techniques the protagonist Lakshmi's emotional journey and the creation of reader empathy It demonstrates how Sold fulfills the key functions of a trauma narrative For the analysis part this paper examines which functions of Laurie Vickroy's theory of trauma narratives Patricia McCormick fulfills in her novel Sold During the course the role of Lakshmi's language which reveals the development of her thoughts and feelings the impact of people accompanying her on her journey as well as the aspect of creating reader empathy will shape the discourse Weighing everything up the paper will arrive at a conclusion In so doing the overall purpose is to prove that Sold fulfills all of the three main functions of a trauma narrative by Laurie Vickroy because other characters either enhance or reduce the traumatic experience Lakshmi's trauma is dependent on numerous aspects that interplay during the novel and the reader is bound to the traumatic experience Wounds and Words Christa Schönfelder, 2014-04-15 Trauma has become a hotly contested topic in literary studies But interest in trauma is not new its roots extend to the Romantic period when novelists and the first psychiatrists influenced each others investigations of the wounded mind This book looks back to these early attempts to understand trauma reading a selection of Romantic novels in dialogue with Romantic and contemporary psychiatry It then carries that dialogue forward to postmodern fiction examining further how empirical approaches can deepen our theorizations of trauma Within an interdisciplinary framework this study reveals fresh insights into the poetics politics and ethics of trauma fiction

Reading Trauma Narratives Laurie Vickroy, 2015-10-30 As part of the contemporary reassessment of trauma that goes beyond Freudian psychoanalysis Laurie Vickroy theorizes trauma in the context of psychological literary and cultural criticism Focusing on novels by Margaret Atwood William Faulkner Toni Morrison Jeanette Winterson and Chuck Palahniuk she shows how these writers try to enlarge our understanding of the relationship between individual traumas and the social forces of injustice oppression and objectification Further she argues their work provides striking examples of how the devastating effects of trauma whether sexual socioeconomic or racial on individual personality can be depicted in narrative Vickroy offers a unique blend of interpretive frameworks She draws on theories of trauma and narrative to analyze the ways in which her selected texts engage readers both cognitively and ethically immersing them in and yet providing perspective on the flawed thinking and behavior of the traumatized and revealing how the psychology of fear can be a driving force for individuals as well as for society Through this engagement these writers enable readers to understand their own roles in systems of power and how they internalize the ideologies of those systems

Collective Trauma, the Body, and Literary Forms of Witnessing Kimberly Adelle Rostan, 2007 The "Mystery of History", its Functionalisation and Disintegration in Graham Swift's "Waterland" Thorben Höppner, 2023-05-02 Seminar paper from the year 2021 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1.0 language English abstract This paper investigates how the ambivalent perhaps even ambiguous definition of historia relates to the representation of history in the novel and how this representation again relates to its functionalisation by Tom Crick To answer this question this paper will primarily work with Linda Hutcheon's notion of historiographic metafiction while also pointing out similarities to the reading of Waterland as a trauma narrative In taking a closer look at the protagonist narrator himself this paper argues that the protection from chaos and disorder which Landow addresses is only achieved through a form of historical escapism Superficially speaking Graham Swift's Waterland is a novel about a history teacher who having lost his job forsakes the formal teaching of history and embarks on an extracurricular journey into his own past However upon closer examination Waterland is more than that a novel about history itself It explores the whole mystery of history as Swift himself puts it in the introduction to the novel Waterland xv Thus it is only logical that the novel prefaces its narrative with an insightful epigraph a dictionary definition of the Latin word historia from which the English word history originates As can be seen above however said definition is ambivalent it is inherently polysemantic as Judith Ryan notes James Acheson has likewise pointed out that the fact that historia can mean either history or fiction is significant for the historian and the writer of fiction must deal with similar problems in writing about the past The natural tendency of language towards proliferation of its meaning aside the epigraph leaves us with a very ambivalent concept of history which the narrative of Waterland in its dealing with history then builds on Since such a prominent theme in Waterland the novel's representation of history has been thoroughly examined in secondary literature particularly against the theoretical background of what Linda Hutcheon has identified as historiographic metafiction

Falling Men in the Post-9/11 Novel Nathalie Gerlach, 2015-02-23 Master's Thesis from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.5 Humboldt University of Berlin Amerikanistik language English abstract Since September 11 2011 reality has not only outstripped fiction it's destroying it It's impossible to write about this subject and yet impossible to write about anything else Nothing else touches us Beigbeder 8 On an early and sunny Tuesday morning in September 2001 the unimaginable happened 2973 people were killed in an attack on the World Trade Center in New York City Within 15 minutes two airplanes hit the Twin Towers and heralded a new age the age of terror The trauma begins at 8:46 AM local time with the crashing of the first plane into The North Tower The tower will collapse 102 minutes later These 102 minutes show images of crashing planes burning and collapsing towers and people jumping from windows These images spread around the world and were repeated endlessly framing them in the discourses of heroism patriotism innocence and trauma D we 2 The images of 9/11 burned themselves into the memories of contemporary witnesses On this Tuesday the World Trade Center literally becomes the center of the world What is happening inside the burning towers remains invisible Everyone who is located above the crashed planes is left with the choice to burn or to jump About 200 people throw themselves out of the windows or pain Post-traumatic Chantal V. Johnson,2022-04-05 In this deeply original Elif Batuman and violently funny Myriam Gurba story a young lawyer finally confronts her dark past so she can live in a more peaceful future To the outside observer Vivian is a success story a dedicated lawyer who advocates for mentally ill patients at a New York City psychiatric hospital Privately Vivian contends with the memories and aftereffects of her bad childhood compounded by the everyday stresses of being a Black Latinx woman in America She lives in a constant state of hypervigilant awareness that makes even a simple subway ride into a heart pounding drama For years Vivian has self medicated with a mix of dating dieting dark humor and smoking weed with her BFF Jane But after a family reunion prompts Vivian to take a bold step she finds herself alone in new and terrifying ways without even Jane to confide in and she starts to unravel Will she find a way to repair what matters most to her A debut from a stunning talent Post traumatic is a new kind of survivor narrative featuring a complex heroine who is blazingly indelibly alive With razor sharp prose and mordant wit Chantal V Johnson performs an extraordinary feat delivering a psychologically astute story about the aftermath of trauma that somehow manages to brim with warmth laughter and hope
