Christian Co, KY, 1991-06-15 Christian County had published a county history in 1841 by Perin and again another by Charles Meachem in 1930 Both of these histories had a limited biography section in them Under the leadership of president Lon Bostick the Genealogical Society of Christian County and the many devoted people of the county at large gave untiringly of their time and knowledge to compile and have published a third history of Christian County in 1986 which is primarily a family history with much social history The people responded well with material and the book was getting so large that we had to stop receiving family histories This left many without the opportunity to get their families recorded Late in 1990 Lon had a job started and was not complete therefore the Odd Fellows of Green River Lodge 54 of Hopkinsville and Jewel Rebekah Lodge 14 the auxiliary of the Odd Fellows met and voted to compile and have published a continuation of Volume I of the Family Histories to be titled Edition I of Family Histories of Christian County Teaching Climate Change in the United States Joseph Henderson, Andrea Drewes, 2020-03-23 This book highlights best practices in climate change education through the analysis of a rich collection of case studies that showcase educational programs across the United States Framed against the political backdrop of a country in which climate change denial presents a significant threat to global action for mitigation and adaptation each case study examines the various strategies employed by those working in this increasingly challenging sociopolitical environment Via co authored chapters written by educational researchers and climate change education practitioners in conversation with one another a wide range of education programs is represented These range from traditional institutions such as K 12 schools and universities to the contemporary learning environments of museums and environmental education centres The role of mass media and community level educational initiatives is also examined The authors cover a multitude of topics including the challenge of multi stakeholder projects tensions between indigenous knowledge and scientific research education for youth activism and professional learning By telling stories of success and failure from the field this book provides climate change researchers and educators with tools to help them

navigate increasingly rough and rising waters

Will Steger Will Steger, John Ratzloff, 2013 I harbored a vision for most of my adult life to build a center in the wilderness in order to draw small groups of key decision makers On my expeditions I had experienced the power of the wilderness setting on group dynamics that literally enabled us to travel across the far reaches of the planet I felt that I could make the biggest impact with my life if I could harness this same spirit and direct it toward the betterment of society and the preservation of our environment It was during the Trans Antarctic Expedition that I conceived the designs for the Steger center Will Steger from the prologue Art of the Canoe with Joe Seliga Jerry Stelmok Deborah Sussex, Joe Seliga is a craftsman noted for his handcrafted canvas covered cedar canoes who lives in Ely Minnesota

Global Climate Change and Public Health Kent E. Pinkerton, William N. Rom, 2013-09-28 Pulmonary physicians and scientists currently have minimal capacity to respond to climate change and its impacts on health The extent to which climate change influences the prevalence and incidence of respiratory morbidity remains largely undefined However evidence is increasing that climate change does drive respiratory disease onset and exacerbation as a result of increased ambient and indoor air pollution desertification heat stress wildfires and the geographic and temporal spread of pollens molds and infectious agents Preliminary research has revealed climate change to have potentially direct and indirect adverse impacts on respiratory health Published studies have linked climate change to increases in respiratory disease including the following changing pollen releases impacting asthma and allergic rhinitis heat waves causing critical care related diseases climate driven air pollution increases exacerbating asthma and COPD desertification increasing particulate matter PM exposures and climate related changes in food and water security impacting infectious respiratory disease through malnutrition pneumonia upper respiratory infections High level ozone and ozone exposure has been linked to idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis lung cancer and acute lower respiratory infection Global Climate Change and Public Health is an important new volume based on the research findings and discussions of US and international experts on respiratory health and climate change This volume addresses issues of major importance to respiratory health and fills a major gap in the current literature The ATS Climate Change and Respiratory Health Workshop was held in New Orleans Louisiana on May 15 2010 The purpose of the meeting was to address the threat to global respiratory health posed by climate change The workshop was attended by domestic and international experts as well as representatives of international respiratory societies and key US federal agencies Dr Pinkerton and Dr Rom the editors of this title were co chairs of the Climate Change Workshop and Symposium

Printers' Ink; the ... Magazine of Advertising, Management and Sales, 1910 Exploring Polar Frontiers William James Mills, 2003-12-11 Covers the entire history of Arctic and Antarctic exploration from the voyage of Pytheas ca 325 B C to the present in one convenient comprehensive reference resource Exploring Polar Frontiers A Historical Encyclopedia is the only reference work that provides a comprehensive history of polar exploration from the ancient period through the present day. The author is a noted polar scholar and offers dramatic accounts of all major explorers and their expeditions together with separate exploration histories for specific islands, regions, and uncharted waters. He presents a wealth of fascinating information under a variety of subject entries including methods of transport, myths, achievements, and record-breaking activities. By approaching polar exploration biographically, geographically, and topically, Mills reveals a number of intriguing connections between the various explorers, their patrons, and times, and the process of discovery in all areas of the polar regions. Furthermore, he provides the reader with a clear understanding of the intellectual climate as well as the dominant social, economic, and political forces surrounding each expedition. Readers will learn why the journeys were undertaken, not just where, when, and how.

The Vortexian, 1928 Genealogy of the Harris and Allied Families Pauline Jones Gandrud, Kathleen Paul Jones, 1929 Backpacker, 1986-01. Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader's doorstep, inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often. The authority on active adventure, Backpacker is the world's first GPS-enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails, camping gear, and survival tips they publish. Backpacker's Editors' Choice Awards, an industry honor recognizing design, feature, and product innovation, has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured.
