Using Media In Religious Education:

Using Media in Religious Education Ronald A. Sarno,1987 USING MEDIA IN RELIGIOUS EDUCATION is a comprehensive handbook designed to help religious educators use media effectively in their work This book richly details the basic principles necessary for understanding media principles which are absolutely essential for the full utilization of media in religious education It also provides concrete suggestions on how to use various forms of media successfully Finally this volume shows how learners can be taught to develop that kind of discerning media appreciation so vital to religious growth in a media culture

Religious Education in a Mediatized World Ilona Nord,Hanna Zipernovszky,2017-05-10 In religious education digitization and mediatization processes result in the transformation of conventional media formats This leads to the development of new media formats which in turn necessitates a redefinition of the relationship between religious education and the media Keeping this in mind this volume first examines the importance of media for specific theological disciplines and then discusses current media pedagogical and media didactic approaches Later in the book the authors develop didactic perspectives on various methods these include internet based archive work and the use of digital teaching materials They also deal with current questions regarding religious education such as inclusion and cyber bullying etc Finally they identify some of the main didactic challenges for religious instruction in a mediatized world This volume is a plea for a wider understanding of education and is based in part on a German Swedish teaching and research cooperation Following this example it focuses on a future oriented networking of plural forms of education This resource is designed for students of theology and religious sciences as well as for religious education teachers

Innovative Approaches to Religious Education Bernhard Grümme,Manfred L. Pirner,2025-07-16 A superb collection of contemporary research on German language religious education Professor Julian Stern Bishop Grosseteste University Lincoln UK Although specific contexts differ between and within countries the issues and challenges regarding religious education in schools are essentially the same worldwide It is therefore very valuable and relevant that this volume makes the rich insights and approaches to religious education developed and brought together by German scholars available to a wider audience Professor Gerdien Bertram Troost Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam The Netherlands This volume can function as a toolkit for teachers aiming to equip the younger generations with skills and competences needed in navigating their paths to good life Professor Arniika Kuusisto Faculty of Educational Sciences University of Helsinki Finland These reflections speak directly to the difficulties of teaching religious education both in Germany and internationally Professor Robyn Horner School of Theology Australian Catholic University
