Creative Strategies for Library Instruction in the Arts, Literature, and Music Marilyn P. Whitmore, 2001 Active learning benefits everyone in all levels and types of libraries Students the general public interns and new reference staff need to find information and conduct research One way to help them understand research strategies is to provide a structured opportunity to experience information seeking Librarians want learners to retain and apply what is taught Finding material and writing research papers is a way of life in the schools colleges and universities which most students attend Students will continue to use the skills and techniques learned from library instruction throughout their lifetimes This book includes seven lesson plans covering various topics in The Arts seven lesson plans in literature and communications and six lesson plans in music Each of the contributing authors is a specialist in his area of expertise and is sharing that knowledge with colleagues It is an excellent resource for librarians planning sessions to undergraduate students in those disciplines The format used is one in which each chapter is a lesson plan that includes active learning exercises Library instruction librarians are able to save a great deal of time with the design of this unique book because the exercises can be easily customized to fit the needs of individual libraries

Expressive Networks Matthew Kilbane, 2025-06-10 Expressive Networks convenes an urgent conversation on digital media and the social life of contemporary poetry Tracing how poems circulate through online spaces and how capitalized platforms have come to pattern the reading and writing of poetry contributors emphasize both the expressivist cast of digital literary culture and the deep running ambivalence that characterizes aesthetic and critical responses to platformed cultural production The volume features chapters on Pan African spoken word programs Singaporean Facebook groups decolonial hemispheric networks and Japanese media critical poetics as well as platforms such as Twitter X Instagram and Amazon Though contributors write from a variety of methodological positions and address themselves to a range of archives they share the primary conviction that the impact of Web 2.0 on literary practice is far reaching far from self evident and far more variegated and unpredictable than easy summations of social media's influence suggest Expressive Networks asks after poetry's present and future by examining what poems themselves express about the social make up of networked platforms Edited by Matthew Kilbane with contributions from Cameron Awkward Rich Micah Bateman Andrew Campana Sumita Chakraborty Scott Challener C R Grimmer Tess McNulty Michael Nardone Seth Perlow Anna Preus Susanna Sacks Carly Schnitzler Melanie Walsh and Samuel Caleb Wee
