Smoking Gun:

The American Political Scandal David R. Dewberry,2015-08-13 In this holistic examination of political scandal in the United States David Dewberry argues convincingly that such scandals follow a consistent narrative centered largely on media coverage and politician performance rather than the actual corruption or ethics violation committed In making this argument he also provides an analytical framework for understanding the patterns underlying scandals regardless of their unique political contexts Dewberry dissects four major examples Teapot Dome Watergate Iran Contra and Clinton Lewinsky and explores the roles of various constituencies involved in creating reacting to and mediating the scandal What is the true role of journalism within the context of scandal What persuasive techniques do politicians employ to develop and perpetuate scandals What motives and values bring scandals to a close In addition to the core cases Dewberry incorporates briefer examples from contemporary and ongoing controversies including Anthony Weiner s sexting scandal money and sex in Congress how cover ups have gone digital and Chris Christie s Bridgewater The result is a fascinating and thoughtful look at the relationships among political discourse free speech and democracy

A Tale of Two Cultures Gary Goertz,James Mahoney,2012-09-09 Some in the social sciences argue that the same logic applies to both qualitative and quantitative methods In A Tale of Two Cultures Gary Goertz and James Mahoney demonstrate that these two paradigms constitute different cultures each internally coherent yet marked by contrasting norms practices and toolkits They identify and discuss major differences between these two traditions that touch nearly every aspect of social science research including design goals causal effects and models concepts and measurement data analysis and case selection Although focused on the differences between qualitative and quantitative research Goertz and Mahoney also seek to promote toleration exchange and learning by enabling scholars to think beyond their own culture and see an alternative scientific worldview This book is written in an easily accessible style and features a host of real world examples to illustrate methodological points

The Smoking Gun William Bastone,Daniel Green,Barbara Glauber,2001

Murder in Dealey Plaza James,2013-11-01 We now know vastly more about the killing of John F Kennedy than was known 20 or 30 years ago and new evidence is accumulating almost every day This new evidence is being uncovered by the bold application of scientific and technological expertise to the assassination records including the film photographic and autopsy records Murder in Dealey Plaza presents the latest and best of the new assassination research As a result of these freshly uncovered findings it is possible to say with moral certainty and considerable scientific authority that the murder of President Kennedy was committed by a meticulously executed conspiracy which was then observed by an extensive cover up

The Smoking Gun William Bastone, Daniel Green, Barbara Glauber, 2004-01-01 Take a wild ride on the paper trail paved by misbehaving celebrities benighted bureaucrats the perpetrators of unusual crimes The creators of www.thesmokinggun.com bring to their first book the same eye for quirky hilarious details that has made their Web site so extraordinarily popular more than 500 000 visitors per month This outrageously entertaining collection of previously unpublished documents court transcripts FBI files morgue police reports patent applications etc uncovers the real story behind some of the most important scandalous bizarre news stories of recent years The documents are shown in their original format Anyone with a yen for dirt will be in hog heaven

The Smoking Gun Gerry Spence, 2004-06-29 Known for his work on the cases of Karen Silkwood and Randy Weaver at Ruby Ridge the renowned attorney and New York Times bestselling author offers the true account of a trial that exposes the unrelenting power of the state that so often crushes all who come before the bar of justice guilty or innocent

United States of America V. Cosentino, 1988 California. Court of Appeal (4th Appellate District). Division 2. Records and Briefs California (State)., Reinventing Richard Nixon Daniel E. Frick, 2008 Examining Nixon's autobiographies and political memorabilia Frick offers far reaching perceptions not only of the man but of Nixon's version of himself contrasted with those who would interpret him differently He cites reinventions of Nixon from the late 1980s particularly the museum at the Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace to demonstrate the resilience of certain national mythic narratives in the face of liberal critiques And he recounts how celebrants at Nixon's state funeral at which Bob Dole's eulogy depicted a God fearing American hero attempted to bury the sources of our divisions over him rendering in some minds the judgment of redeemed statesman to erase his status as disgraced president With dozens of illustrations Nixon posing with Elvis the National Archives most requested photo Nixonian cultural artifacts classic editorial cartoons no other book collects in one place such varied images of Nixon from so many diverse media These reinforce Frick's probing analysis to help us understand why we disagree about Nixon and why it matters how we resolve our disagreements

Presidential Temples Benjamin Hufbauer, 2005 This book explores the visual and material cultures of presidential commemoration memorials and monuments libraries and archives and the problematic ways in which presidents themselves have largely taken over their own commemoration The author sees these various commemorative sites as playing a key role in the construction of our collective political and cultural self images and as another sign of our preoccupation with celebrity culture Ultimately he contends these presidential temples reflect not only our civil religion but also the extraordinary expansion of executive authority and presidential self commemoration since FDR
