Star Dancing:

The River Remembers Linda Ulleseit, 2023-06-27 Samantha Lockwood Day Sets and Harriet Robinson come to Fort Snelling from very different backgrounds It s 1835 and the world is changing fast and they are all struggling to keep up After she refuses another suitor he s chosen for her Samantha s father banishes her to live in the territory with her brother He too tries to take over her marriage plans but she is determined to find her own husband even when her choices go awry Day Sets demands that her white husband create a school to educate their daughter supporting her father s belief that his people must learn the ways of the white man in order to ensure the tribe s future Until events prove her father wrong Harriet s life in the territory is more like that of a free person than anywhere she s lived She even falls in love with Dred Scott and dreams of a life with him But they are both enslaved and she keeps being reminded of how little control she has over her own fate As their cultures collide each of these three women must find a way to direct her own future and leave a legacy for her children

The Art of Stage Dancing Ned Wayburn, 1925 Father Mike Bunk, 2019-07-26 Maagnus grows up listening to his father tell stories stories of adventure stories of battles stories of family Always ready for a story Maagnus does not tire of hearing these many times He often puts himself beside his father in the story He wants more than anything to be with his father on an adventure Maagnus would have honor to be with his father and his father would have honor to have him by his side Norsemen have many adventures and are always ready to share a story about it When Maagnus is of the age to be on these adventures the country has experienced change The desire to fight to raid to take what is not theirs is no longer part of the Norseman s life There are men with red lines on their shirts now moving freely in his country Maagnus does not like this He seeks adventure elsewhere and finds just that and more Back to You Hattie Burks, 1916 The Portal in the Park

Janie Rose, 2017-06-26 A modern day young woman takes a trek into beautiful Letchworth State park on horseback After being thrown and suffering a blow to the head she regains consciousness and finds herself in the late 1700s Even stranger she is in a male body a Seneca Indian medicine man named Brown Feather As him she teaches the tribe and the reader about Ego versus Soul The Law of Attraction and how to manifest your desires into reality all of which transform her life and the Seneca tribe Brown Feather grows to love so dearly The tale also shares a little bit of local western New York as well as the basic fundamentals of natural medicine Primary Education, Popular Educator , 1927 Primary Education , 1927

The Billboard , 1926 Jumping the Color Line Susie Trenka, 2021-02-02 From the first synchronized sound films of the late 1920s through the end of World War II African American music and dance styles were ubiquitous in films Black performers however were marginalized mostly limited to appearing in specialty acts and various types of short films whereas stardom was reserved for Whites Jumping the Color Line discusses vernacular jazz dance in film as a focal point of American race relations Looking at intersections of race gender and class the book examines how the racialized and gendered body in film performs challenges and negotiates identities and stereotypes Arguing for the transformative and subversive potential of jazz dance performance onscreen the six chapters address a variety of films and performers including many that have received little attention to date Topics include Hollywood s first Black female star Nina Mae McKinney male tap dance class acts in Black cast short films of the early 1930s the film career of Black tap soloist Jeni LeGon the role of dance in the Soundies jukebox shorts of the 1940s cinematic images of the Lindy hop and a series of teen films from the early 1940s that appealed primarily to young White fans of swing culture With a majority of examples taken from marginal film forms such as shorts and B movies the book highlights their role in disseminating alternative images of racial and gender identities as embodied by dancers images that were at least partly at odds with those typically found in major Hollywood productions
