The veracious imagination Cushing Strout,1981 Narratives and Spaces David E. Nye,1997 Nye analyzes the transformation of the Grand Canyon and Niagara Falls into tourist sites the history of light shows at world s fairs the New Deal programs designed to provide electricity to rural areas and the Apollo 11 moon to reveal how the spaces we live in and the technology we use are integral to American identity and a key part of American self representation Nye also turns his attention to the Internet where technology has not simply transformed space but created a whole new kind of space and with it new stories Nye analyzes the transformation of the Grand Canyon and Niagara Falls into tourist sites the history of light shows at world s fairs the New Deal programs designed to provide electricity to rural areas the Apollo 11 moon landing and the new narratives of the Internet to reveal how the spaces we live in and the technology we use are integral to American identity and a key part of American self representation In examining the interaction of technology space and American narrative Nye argues against the idea that technology is an inevitable and insidious controller of our lives The Works of George Eliot: The legend of Jubal, and other poems George Eliot,1887 Novel Approaches to Anthropology Marilyn Cohen,2013-09-05 This volume of interdisciplinary essays reflect current contributions to literary anthropology Novel Approaches to Anthropology Contributions to Literary Anthropology showcases the myriad ways that anthropologists bring their disciplinary perspectives theories concepts and pedagogical strategies to interpreting fiction and travel writing written in the past and present The authors integrate insights from the reflexive deconstructive turn in anthropology and from critical Marxist and feminist approaches that ground interpretation in the political economic and social constraints and experiences of everyday life The contributors share the view that fiction like all artistic expression is rooted in specific historical and cultural contexts Literature like all artistic expression stimulates a critical imagination by allowing readers to take a fresh look at their own society and culture Complete Works George Eliot,1885 Telling Histories ,2022-06-08 The proliferation of historical novels with more or less overt metafictional traits in the late seventies and eighties in Britain is a particularly arresting phenomenon at a time when historians are openly questioning the validity of the traditional concept of history understood as a scientific search for knowledge This apparent contradiction justifies the attempt made by the contributors of this volume to analyze the relationship between history and literature in English The reader will find four preliminary essays on The End of the Classical Period establishing the characteristics of the appropriation of history since the appearance of Sir Walter Scott s historical romances with special emphasis on the Victorian novel Dickens Eliot Mrs Humphry Ward the Irish ballad and Post Independence Indian historical fiction as a necessary preface to the main group of essays on The Postmodernist Era devoted to establishing the common as well as the individually distinctive traits in the writings of some of the most accomplished contemporary writers in English the more centered British novelists Margaret Drabble Julian Barnes and William Golding as well as the more ex centric Angela Carter Salman Rushdie and Jeanette

Silas Marner George Eliot,1904 The Thinking Historian Eric W. Sager,2025-01-27 What is history What are historians doing when we create our histories The need for answers is more urgent than ever We live in an era when history is often rejected or ignored and when all teachers of history confront formidable challenges In the culture of screen capitalism and social media historical knowledge is evaded in an expanding present minded consciousness How can history be defended and what is it that we are defending This book argues that history is a mode of thinking a form of imaginative reasoning with its own informal logic In non technical language and using examples from important works of history the book defines core elements in historical thinking These include contingency complexity temporality parts and wholes consilience perspectives analogy and abduction These elements are subsumed into the concept of imaginative reasoning The overall argument echoes the work of hermeneutic philosophers History is a disciplined imagination tempered and empowered by its forms of reasoning It embraces ethical imperatives that the historian has a duty to declare Equipped with such understanding historians may answer the many rejections of history and secure its place in our shared futures The Writings of George Eliot... George Eliot,1908 George Eliot's Works: Impressions of Theophrastus Such. Essays. Leaves from a notebook George Eliot,1916 On Turner's Trail Wilbur R. Jacobs,1994 From a master historian this is one of the most important contributions in recent years to American historiography It adds to a penetrating analysis of the development of Turner s thought a searching consideration of the influence of his ideas an investigation of the advocacy and criticism that they have sparked and an estimate of their enduring importance Handsomely produced and illustrated Choice The Book Buyer ,1900 A review and record of current literature Randolph Bourne and the Politics of Cultural Radicalism Leslie J.
