Unwinding Threads Charlotte H. Bruner,1983 This anthology contains short stories and extracts from novels by women all over Africa The pioneer West Africans wrote to arouse national pride for their countries coming independence Southern African activists raise their voices against political and economic repression and racism Northern African women seek to lift their veils to emerge from the enforced domesticity and female servitude The experience the goal the language the audience differ from one writer to another However their works all affirm as Doris Lessing wrote that filter which is a woman s way of looking at life has the same validity as that filter which is a man s way From publisher s description Unwinding Threads

Charlotte H. Bruner,1983 Unwinding Threads Charlotte H. Bruner,1994 This popular anthology contains short stories and extracts from novels by women all over Africa Thread by Thread Sharon Adornetto,2025-10-30 This writer brings the reader into the most personal and rawest experiences of caring for her husband with Alzheimer s disease Nothing is spared Stark truth and vulnerability are on every page While trying her very best to care for him she cries she despairs and she experiences living grief while her husband is still alive It took courage to write this book It will take courage to read it

The Feminization of Development Processes in Africa James S. Etim,Valentine U. James,1999-04-30 Women have historically provided vision and leadership to African countries and are now being recognized as pivotal to the overall sustainable development of Africa In many cases however this recognition has not resulted in the empowerment of African women who still face great discrimination This edited volume explores the contributions women have made to all phases of development planning design construction implementation and operation and the obstacles they have had to face Besides analyzing the current situation and identifying trends the contributors also make recommendations for policy reform and for future planning Textile Manufacturer ,1930 The travels of a Usher Sandrine Dangleterre,2020-11-06 Deep down I was glad I got to see what it was It is important that a guide explains well by giving precise information or clues etc for me to see imagine or guess I was born deaf with Type 1 Usher Syndrome but I didn t know it This is how I gradually discovered that I did not see like everyone else but without knowing that my eyes had a problem I have always liked to travel This book is an account of my travels I tell you all the little tips you need to use to cope with your disability with the help of others as well
