Writing In Australia:

Writing the Australian Beach Elizabeth Ellison, Donna Lee Brien, 2020-03-02 Writing the Australian Beach is the first book in fifteen years to explore creative and cultural representations of this iconic landscape and how writers and scholars have attempted to understand and depict it. Although the content chiefly focuses on Australia, the beach as both a location and idea resonates deeply with readers around the world. This edited collection includes three sections: Forms of Beach Writing examines the history of beach writing in Australia and in a number of forms: screenwriting, social media writing, and food writing. In turn Multiplicities of Australian Beach Writing examines how forms of writing: poetry, travel writing, horror film, and memoir engage with some specific beaches in Australia. And finally Reading the Beach as a Text considers how the beach itself functions in cultural narratives: how we walk the beach, the revealing story of beach soccer, and the design and use of ocean baths. Given its scope, the collection offers a unique resource for scholars of Australian culture and creative writing and for all those interested in Australian beaches.

Writing Australian History On-screen Jo Parnell, Julie Anne Taddeo, 2023-02-15 Writing Australian History On screen Television and Film Period Dramas Down Under reveals the depths of Australian history from convict times to the present day. The essays in this book are thematically driven and take a rounded historical, cultural, sociological, psychological approach in analyzing the various selected productions. In their analyses and interpretations of the topic, the contributors interrogate the intricacies in Australian history as represented in Australian filmic period drama taken from an Australian perspective. Individually and together as a body of authors, they highlight past issues that despite the society's changing attitudes over time still have relevance for the Australia of today. In speaking to the subject, the contributing writers show a keen awareness that addressing new areas arising from the humanities is key to learning and hence to developing an understanding of the Australian culture, the society, and sense of the ever-unfurling flag of an Australian something that is not yet a national identity.

Writing Australian Unsettlement Michael Farrell, 2015-09-16 A bold work of synthetic scholarship Writing Australian Unsettlement argues that the history of Australian literature contains the rough beginnings of a new literacy. Michael Farrell reads songs, letters, and visual poems by Indigenous farmers and stockmen, the unpunctuated journals of early settler women, drover tree messages, and carved clubs, and a meta-commentary on settlement from Moore River, the place escaped from in The Rabbit Proof Fence in order to rethink old forms. The book borrows the figure of the assemblage to suggest the active and revisable nature of Australian writing, arguing against the settling effects of its prior editors, anthologists, and historians. Avoiding the advancement of a new canon, Farrell offers instead an unsettled space in which to rethink Australian writing.
